FOR FLANK MOVE ON RUSSIAN LEFT JAPS GO FORWARD

Large Force Advancing East of Mukden for Turning Movement.

MANY FIERCE CLASHES BETWEEN ARMY OUTPOSTS

Many Casualties in Battle in Valley of Napu, Declares Sakharoff. Russians Now Fear Mobility to Keep Up Winter Campaign.

INDICATIONS are discerned at St. Petersburg that the Japanese are planning a flanking movement against General Kuropatkin's left to compel retirement from Sintsintin.

General Kuroki is supposed to design crossing the Hun river at a point considerably east of Mukden, from which he is expected to move down that stream and cooperate with an army from Sianchan, while Generals Oku and Nodzu hold General Kuropatkin south of Mukden. Japanese attacks on Da pass and Sanlungku are regarded as confirmation of this theory. Outposts of Generals Oku and Nodzu have been in conflict with Cossacks between Bentsiaputze and the railroad.

No news has been received from Port Arthur.

ST. PETERSBUEG, September 26.—News has been received from General Kuropatkin announcing that the Japanese are preparing an extensive turning movement east of Mukden. A large force is advancing from Liao-Yang, by way of Taiche, to Tsianschan. Skirmishes have occurred in the valley of the Hun river, and at Inpu, between Bentsiaputze and the railroad.

There were many casualties at Inpu.

General Sakharoff, in a dispatch dated yesterday, telegraphs that the Japanese advance guard during the last few days attempted to occupy Kuropatu pass, on the road to Fushun, but were repulsed by a detachment of Russian advance guard.

On the south front all is quiet, though shots are exchanged daily and skirmishes occur between the advance posts.

MUKDEN, September 26.—Doubts are beginning to be felt as to whether it will be possible to continue the campaign through the winter, which begins in November. The Chinese have been unable to harvest their crops and there probably will be much distress, as it is very difficult to bring up stores from China for the native population

GENERAL JAP ADVANCE TO BEGIN IN DAY OR TWO

Mukden, September 26.—The Japanese do not appear to be moving, but it is believed that they will begin a general advance within a day or two. They are continually receiving reinforcements. Russian scouts who penetrated beyond Bentsiapuzel saw large encampments of Japanese and a strong column is reported to be forming northwest of Liao-Yang. A thousand Japanese are daily crossing the Taitse river over three bridges which have been built above the railroad.

REORGANIZATION OF ARMY PLEASIN TO RUSSIANS

St. Petersburg, Septmber 26.—The reorganization of Russian forces in the far east by the appointment of General Grippenberger to command the second army has been received with much satisfaction by the press. Even the Novoe-Vremya, which has been urging the promotion of General Kuropatkin to the rank of commander in chief, recognizes the impossibility of confiding the vast host now to be assembled to the commander of the forces actually in the field. Other papers warmly endorse the motives for the formation of the second army and the evident determination to prosecute the war with increased vigor. The Sviet, whose editor, M. Kamaroff, formerly was a colonel in the army, and, therefore peculiarly fitted to appreciate the significance of the new departure, says: "Hitherto General Kuropatkin has been chief of all the land forces in the far east. Although enjoying the fullest independence as a matter of fact, he was appointed in the character of the viceroy's assistant."

The names of Grand Duke Nicholas Nicholaevitch, inspector of cavalry early in the war, was on everybody's lips as likely to be made commander in chief, and it continues to be reported that he will be placed in command of the Russian forces in the far east, but no paper here ventures to publish the rumor pending an official announcement of his appointment.

LIST OF VICTIMS STANDS AT 62

Only Four or Five More Desperately Injured.

Body Sent to Birmingham As That of D. S. Fox Found to Be Corpse of J. M. Daly, a Detroit Drummer.

Knoxville, Tenn., September 26.—No additional deaths of injured have occurred today and the death list of the Southern wreck near Newmarket, on Saturday last still stands at 62.

All of the injured at the Knoxville general hospital are reported doing well, and only four or five are so desperately injured that death may result from their injules.

A body which was identified early Sunday morning as that of D. S. Fox, of Birmingham, Alabama, and sent to that city, was returned here today, accompanied by two brothers of Mr. Fox. The body supposed to have been that of D. S. Fox turned out to be that of J. M. Daly, of Detroit, Michigan, who traveled Tennessee and Kentucky for D. M. Ferry & Co.

The brothers of Mr. Fox went to the morgue and identified a body there as that of their brother. The mistake must have been made by searchers at the wreck who put Mr. Fox's papers in the pocket of the Daly body. Mr. Fox's remains were shipped to Birmingham tonight.

Today has been one of sorrow for this city. No less than 12 funerals of victims of the wreck were held. One was a double funeral where two aged sisters were buried, at another mother and daughter were buried and at still another services were said for a mother and her two little children.

Many of the leading officials of the Southern are still here, and will remain until all damages can be settled so far as possible. Today at the scene of the disaster a huge bonfire was built and the mass of kindling wood was burned together with small pieces of decaying flesh.

Of the list of 62 dead only 5 bodies now remain to be identified. Four white men and 1 colored. Three will probably have to be buried in nameless graves. Two of the white men may be traced. One wears a Masonic badge and has the initials "G. B." on his linen.

The only means of identifying the other body is through his watch, made by A. C. Kolbuch, works No. 130,814.

COTTON GROWERS AT ST. LOUIS.

Five Hundred Cotton Men Meet. Harvie Jordan Presided.

St. Louis, September 26.—More than 500 cotton men attended the convention of the southern cotton growers, which met in the Palace of Agriculture today. President Harvie Jordan, of the Southern Cotton Growers' Protective Association, presided.

Representatives were present from all the cotton producing states. The purpose of the convention was to discuss ways and means for the future handling of the south's staple crop by the producers and to perfect arrangements for financing the cotton in their hands so as to secure a slower and more uniform movement of the staple in the markets of the country.

WHITE SERVICE RESTORED.

Western Union Abandons Negroes After Long Fight.

Richmond, Va., September 26.—After a fight of nine months waged by the white messenger boys, the negro messenger service of the Western Union has been abandoned and the white service restored.

Steamers Collide in River.

Green Cove Springs, Fla., September 26.—The steamers Heck and Ruby collided in the St. Johns river this afternoon off Mandarine Point, about 10 miles below this place, and the Ruby went to the bottom in about three minutes. Six men composed the crew of the Ruby. Most of them jumped overboard when they saw the collision could not be avoided and all were saved.

Fairbanks in Montana.

Billings, Mont., September 26.—Senator Fairbanks spent the greater part of the day discussing irrigation. The day was devoted to a tour of the Yellowstone country, beginning at Glendive, on the eastern border of Montana, and closing at this point, not far from the center of the state.

LADY CURZON GIVEN OXYGEN

Taking Nourishment Better. Mother Gets News by Wireless.

Walmer Castle, Kent., September 27.—2. a. m.—The oxygen treatment of Lady Curzon is being continued, but the oxygen is administered in less quantity and the patient is taking nourishment better.

Lord Curzon, for the first time in a week, ventured out for a walk on the sea front yesterday.

Arrangements have been made to keep Mrs. Leiter, who is a passenger on the steamer Vaderland, informed by wireless telegraph of the condition of her daughter.

HANGING BY HIS HAIR!

INDIANA VOTES BADLY NEEDED

Result of Campaign May Hinge on Hoosiers.

Declared That Taggart Will Leave New York at Early Date to Take Personal Charge of Campaign in Native State.

New York, September 26.—It is understood that western headquarters for the democratic national committee will be established at French Lick Springs, Ind., early next month and in all probability will be under the direction of Thomas Taggart, chairman of the national committee.

From French Lick the campaign will be directed in the states of Indiana, Illinois, Wisconsin, Ohio, Kentucky, Michigan, Missouri, Iowa and all the far western states where there is the possibility of winning electoral votes.

The democratic campaign will open in Indiana October 7, when M. E. Ingalls, of Cincinnati, will speak at Indianapolis; Senator Blackburn, of Kentucky, will speak October 13 and Senator Stone, of Missouri, October 19. The places will be fixed by the democratic state committee.

Taggart After Hoosier Votes.

Indianapolis, September 26.—The News said today: National Chairman Thomas Taggart will give personal attention to the democratic campaign in Indiana. The details of the general scheme of campaign adopted at the prolonged conference in New York Thursday, Friday and Saturday have not been made public, but it is known that the party leaders agreed that Indiana must have special attention.

After three days conference, the leaders reached the conclusion that it may turn out that the election of the democratic ticket will hinge on Indiana. The state, the leaders decided, is as essential as New York. Having reached this decision, it was deemed the part of wisdom to ask Taggart to concentrate his personal efforts in the state.

In the plans agreed upon at the New York conference Senator Gorman is to have charge in Maryland and West Virginia; Thomas Taggart in Indiana; ex-United States Senator Smith in New Jersey, the Connecticut state organization in that state, and William F. Sheehan in New York.

If later at shall appear that the party has a fighting chance in Wisconsin, National Committeeman Ryan, a member of the executive committee will command in that state.

WILL MAKE NEW AWARD.

Discovered That Member of Firm is Legislator.

Jackson, Miss., September 26.—(Special.)—The building commission of the deaf and dumb institute this afternoon awarded the contract for the new buildings for the institution to McGee Garber, of this city. Their bid was $53,673. Six other bidders were in the contest.

Afterwards it was discovered that the award was illegal, because W. J. McGee, senior member of the firm, is a member of the legislature.

The contract will be relet three weeks hence.

PARKER'S LETTER ROUNDLY CHEERED

Many Congratulatory Telegrams Reach Candidate.

Prominent Democrats All Over Country and Numerous Editors of Democratic Papers Wire Approval of Parker's Letter of Acceptance.

Esopus, N. Y., September 26.—Many telegrams came to Rosemount today congratulating Judge Parker on his letter of acceptance. Some of the dispatches came from prominent figures in the democratic party and not a few from editors.

A delegation of thirty-six democrats from Poughkeepsie came to Rosemount at 5 o'clock today and spent an hour with Judge Parker.

No callers were expected at Rosemount today. Judge Parker spent part of the morning reading the papers and then took up his correspondence, which piled up during his recent visit to New York.

Judge Alton B. Parker and his secretary will go to New York tomorrow morning, arriving there at 9:30 o'clock.

Spinners Meet at Charlotte Today.

Charlotte, N. C., September 26.—Wide interest is being exhibited in the meeting of the spinners, which will take place here tomorrow. It is estimatd that 200 men will attend. The trade is fully alive to the situation and mill men speak with earnestness of the necessity of improved conditions in prices of their goods.

WIREN WILL TRY TO CUT WAY OUT.

REAR ADMIRAL WIREN.

ST. PETERSBURG, September 27.—1:45 a. m.—The naval organ, Kotlin, today publishes an article predicting that Rear Admiral Wiren will attempt to break out of Port Arthur with his ships and return to Europe. The paper admits that the task of escaping from Rear Admiral Togo appears to be hopeless if one takes for comparison Admiral Cervera's attempt to get away from Santiago, but adds that Wiren's men, unlike the Spaniards, have had plenty of war experience.

SENATOR DAVIS READY FOR FRAY

Hill, Gorman and Daniel To Aid in West Virginia.

Tour of State Will Be Made by Party, Whose Members Will Make Speeches at All Important Political Gatherings.

New York, September 26.—Daniel McConville, chairman of the speaker's bureau of the democratic national committee, today received a letter from Henry Gassaway Davis, in which the vice presidential candidate said that he had completed arrangements for his speaking tour through West Virginia.

The start will be made from Baltimore on Monday, October 10th after a meeting in that city which will be addressed by the vice presidential candidate, Senator Arthur Pue Gorman, ex-Senator William Pinckney Whyte, Senator John W. Daniel, of Virginia, and ex-Senator David B. Hill, of New York.

Senators Daniel, Hill and Whyte will accompany Mr. Davis on his entire trip through West Virginia. Stops will be made at every town along the lines of the Baltimore and Ohio, Chesapeake and Ohio and Norfolk and Western railroads. On Tuesday, October 11th, the party will be divided so that two will speak at Piedmont, and two at Kayser, and on Wednesday two will speak at Grafton and two at Clarksburg.

On Thursday evening, October 13th, all four will speak at Wheeling, on Friday at Parkersburg and on Saturday at Huntington and Charlestown. On Monday morning the party will leave Charlestown over the Chesapeake and Ohio for connection with the Norfolk and Western, and during the remainder of the week speeches will be made at various points along that railroad.

Senator Gorman will join the party from time to time, and will speak at several meetings in the larger towns.

SAM DEARMOND KILLED.

Prominent Man of Tennessee Shot to Death.

Knoxville, Tenn., September 26.—Sam Dearmond, a prominent citizen of Kingston, the county seat of Roane county, Tennessee, was assassinated by an unknown man at 9 o'clock tonight while passing the court house at that place. The sheriff and posse of deputies, who are hunting for the murderer, claim to have a slight clew. Dearmond was killed with a shotgun and his assassin could not have been more than 6 or 8 feet from him when he fired, for the lower part of the jaw and a part of the neck are entirely torn away. Dearmond is 35 years old, and connected with one of the most influential families of Roane county.

Chief Engineer in Athens.

Athens, Ga., September 26.—(Special.)—Henry M. Wells, chief engineer of the Southern railroad, is in the city on a visit to his daughter, Mrs. Covis G. Talmadge. Mr. Wells is looking around with a view to finding him a home in this city, where he will in all probability locate his family.

Senator Hoar Unconscious.

Worcester, Mass., September 26.—Senator Hoar at 11 o'clock tonight was unconscious and had been all day. It is believed he will live several days.

ALABAMA SOLDIERS WILL BE CASHIERED FOR YIELDING TO MOB

TWO ARE KILLED THREE WOUNDED

Race Riot in Mississippi Causes Deadly Results.

White Men Were Fired Upon by Negroes While Driving Wagon, and the Return Volley Caused Wholesale Death.

Memphis, Tenn., September 26.—Two negroes were killed and three were fatally wounded in a race riot near Lynchburg, Miss., 15 miles south of Memphis, late today.

The shooting took place on the plantation of J. J. Johnson, who, with his two sons and two friends, went into a field to gather a load of corn. The field was worked on shares by a negro family named Kennedy.

As the white men were driving their wagon from the field a fusillade from a party of blacks met them. The fire was returned with the result that two negroes were killed outright and three were fatally shot.

A number of whites joined Johnson and his friends, and are now searching for others of the attacking party.

The names of the dead and wounded are not obtainable.

UNION IRON WORKS BOUGHT.

Schwab's Company Gets All But One Allied Plant.

San Francisco, September 26.—The Union Iron works, one of the properties of the former United States Shipbuilding Corporation, was sold at public auction today by order of the federal court of the district of New Jersey.

James Smith, Jr., receiver of the corporation, who was appointed a special master in chancery for the occasion, conducted the sale. The only bidder was Francis D. Pollock, representing the reorganization company of the new shipbuilding company, 70 per cent stock of which is owned by Charles M. Schwab. His bid, the minimum allowable under the terms of the sale of $1,700,000, was accepted. The successful bidder deposited certified checks amounting to $165,000.

The plant of the Harlan & Hollingsworth Company, at Wilmington, Del., is now the only one of the former properties of the United States Shipbuilding Company not controlled by the reorganization company.

MATHIS LEAVES STATE NORMAL

Professor of Mathematics Has Entered Insurance Work.

Athens, Ga., September 26.—(Special.)—Professor J. E. Mathis, who was recently elected to fill the position of professor of mathematics in the State Normal school, has resigned his position, and has entered the insurance field.

He has accepted the position of superintendent of agencies of the Equitable Life Insurance company, with headquarters at Americus, Ga.

President R. J. Guinn, of the State Normal school board of trustees, has assigned the department of mathematics to President Branson for the time being, until the board can be called together and elect a successor to Professor Mathis.

SHE WAS DETERMINED TO DIE.

Miss Shipley Hanged Herself With Suicidal Intent.

Knoxville, Tenn., September 26.—Miss Lucretia Shipley, of Bluff Ridge, Washington county, sucided today by hanging while temporarily insane. She threw the rope over a sapling which bent beneath her weight, but she managed to strangle herself by sinking to her knees.

Cruiser Denver on Trial.

Newport News, Va., September 26.—The United States cruiser Denver, having aboard the naval inspection board from Washington, composed of Commander W. C. Cowles, Captain I. S. K. Reeves and Captain Woodward, put to sea today on her final acceptance trial, which will be had off the Virginia capes. The Denver will return to Hampton roads tomorrow.

SAY HILL TIED ROPE TO TREE

Ben Hill, Alleged Lyncher, on Trial in Alabama.

Huntsville, Ala., September 26.—Ben Hill, alleged lyncher, is on trial on a charge of murder. Seventy-seven talesmen were examined before a jury of twelve competent men were found.

Several witnesses testified that Hill climbed the tree to tie the rope at the hanging of Maples.

James Armstrong and Josh Mitchell were arraigned and plead not guilty and their trials are set for Thursday and Friday.

Scathing Report on the Huntsville Lynching Is Made by Court of Inquiry.

"WORTHLESS" IS APPLIED TO HUNTSVILLE COMPANY

On October 4 the Entire Company Will Be Dismissed in Disgrace from Service of State for Failing to Protect Negro from Mob.

Montgomery, Ala. September 26.—(Special.)—"Company F, Third infantry, Alabama national guard, as organized, is inefficient and worthless. We recommend that company F, Third infantry, Alabama national guard, be mustered out of service."

These quotations are from the report of the military board of inquiry appointed by the governor to look into the actions of Captain R. L. Hay, commanding, and the members of company F, on the night of September 7, when a mob was allowed to take from the officers, civil and military, at Huntsville, Horace Maples, a negro, and hang him, in violation of law.

Adjutant General William W. Brandon at once issued an order, by express command of the governor, that the recommendations of the board of inquiry be concurred in and naming the night of October 4 next as the time to muster out the Huntsville forces.

The whole trouble of the night of September 7 is reviewed by the report of the board. It is shown that Captain Hay had no definite plan of action; that he failed to support his sentinels on the outside and that most of the men had no loads in their guns, though there was plenty of ammunition to be had; also that one sentinel was overpowered and badly hurt by the mob.

It was also shown that members of the military company were cursed and assaulted by the mob after fire was set to the jail, and that they lost their military identity in the crowds.

"It is further found that the attack on the jail found the military sitting around on the steps and out of military formation, and on the curbstones, eating supper; also that on the night of the mob there was an entire lack of concerted efforts or plans for the protection of the jail or prisoner. That the combined shortcoming of the military allowed a life to be taken unlawfully by a mob under circumstances which justify us in concluding that the same could have been prevented, thereby reflecting serious discredit upon the military called into service."

The board also recommended that all officers be taught the laws governing their position before being allowed to command men.

KRATZ CASE CONTINUED

St. Louis Councilman Too Ill to Face Bribery Charge.

Butler, Mo., September 26.—The trial of Charles Kratz, member of the St. Louis council, for bribery, was continued today, Kratz being ill after an operation for appendicitis.

Before this continuance was granted, Charles G. Hunt, one of the summoned jury panel, made affidavit that J. S. Francisco, one of Kratz's lawyers, had attempted to bribe him with $200, to vote for Kratz's acquittal, provided he (Hunt) was chosen ason e of the twelve jurors to try the case. Because of this charge Mr. Folk filed motions to have the entire panel quashed.

ATTENDANCE AT FAIR REACHES 11,792,848.

ST. LOUIS, September 26.—The statement of the admissions at the world's fair for the six days ending September 24 has been given out by the department of admissions, the total being 770,418. The grand total to date is 11,792,848.

IMPALED ON SPLINTER BOY MET HIS DEATH

NEW YORK, September 26.—Impaled on the stump of a tree by a large splinter that had penetrated his right breast to the lung, Alphonse Pede, of Brooklyn, has died in the presence of a score of horrified boys and girls with whom he had been chestnutting near Jamaica. Pede had been sitting on the branch of a tree knocking off chestnuts to his companions, when the limb on which he sat broke and he fell face downward upon a stump below. When a doctor arrived he found the youth dead. One of his playmates was praying beside him.

A LETTER TO OUR READERS.

53 Cottage St., Melrose, Mass.
Dear Sir: Jan. 11th, 1904.

"Ever since I was in the army, I had more or less kidney trouble, and within the past year it became so severe and complicated that I suffered everything and was much alarmed—my strength and power was fast leaving me. I saw an advertisement of Swamp-Root and wrote asking for advice. I began the use of the medicine and noted a decided improvement after taking Swamp-Root only a short time.

"I continued its use and am thankful to say that I am entirely cured and strong. In order to be very sure about this, I had a doctor examine some of my water today and he pronounced it all right and in splendid condition.

"I know that your Swamp-Root is purely vegetable and does not contain any harmful drugs. Thanking you for my complete recovery and recommending Swamp-Root to all sufferers, I am,"

Very truly yours,
I. C. RICHARDSON.

You may have a sample bottle of this wonderful remedy, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, sent absolutely free by mail, also a book telling all about Swamp-Root. If you are already convinced that Swamp-Root is what you need, you can purchase the regular fifty-cent and one-dollar size bottles at the drug stores everywhere. Don't make any mistake, but remember the name, Swamp-Root, Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, and the address, Binghamton, N. Y., on every bottle.

Mountain Appears as If It Would Be Rent.

Breaking Away of Crust Around Crater Has Added to Imposing Spectacle, Though in Reality Activity of Volcano Has Decreased.

Naples, September 26.—The eruption of Mt. Vesuvius continues and although it has somewhat decreased, it is still most imposing and its vividness has been augmented by the breaking away of the crust around the crater, with shakings, rumblings and explosions, making it appear as if the whole mountain would be rent from top to bottom.

The funicular railroad restaurant has been damaged by the flow of lava. On the Pompeii side the eruption is very threatening and a great quantity of ashes is being ejected.

KILLING NEAR JEFFERSON.

Negroes Engage in Fatal Dificulty Over Liquor.

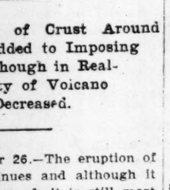

Jefferson, Ga., September 28.—(Special.)—Miles Winfrey, colored, got into a difficulty late Saturday night with Will Lester and Shep Johnson, both colored, on the McElhannon & Holder plantation, in Harrisburg district, this county, about a half gallon of blind tiger liquor, and as a result of this difficulty Will Lester was shot through the head by Miles Winfrey and died immediately, and Shep Johnson was shot through the abdomen by Miles Winfrey and now lies in a very critical condition. After the difficulty Miles Wnfrey made good his escape and is now at large, although the officers are in hot pursuit of him and hope to capture him before the close of the day.

Jackson county's citizens are law-abiding men, and there is no danger whatever of any mob violence in the event Miles Winfrey is captured.

Receiver for Candy Company.

Columbus, Ga., Sept. 26.—(Special.)—upon the petition of Frazer, T. F. Lockwood and T. W. Bates, representing claims amounting to between $3,000 and $4,000, Cecil Neill was appointed receiver of the Whitaker Candy company today. The creditors filed an involuntary bankruptcy petition against the company and allege that at a meeting of the stockholders of the company Saturday insolvency was admitted.

PUBLISH ACTION SAID SIGSBEE

Colombian Governor Given Orders by Rear Admiral.

Apology for Insult to American Consulate at Cartagena Found Satisfactory, But Admiral Demanded That Apology Be Spread Abroad.

Colon, September 26.—The American consulate at Carthagena, having been twice recently besmeared with filth, Rear Admiral Sigsbee, with his flagship, the Newark, was ordered to proceed to Carthagena and investigate the circumstances. The gunboat Newport joined the flagship on September 16. In a communication to the governor, Luis Patron, Admiral Sigsbee says in part:

"I find your expressions of regret for the acts of indecency on behalf of yourself and your government satisfactory, but that they have not been given sufficient publicity. I suggest additional precautions to prevent a recurrence of such incidents and fuller publicity of the government's expressions of regret, in order to avoid a friendly visit assuming a more difficult feature."

Governor Patron complied by reiterating his regrets.

TRAIN WRECKED BY OPEN SWITCH

Three Are Killed and Nine Injured.

Express on Maine Central, Running at Full Speed, Crashed Into Freight Standing on Siding—Engineer, Fireman and Mail Clerk Killed.

Lewiston, Me., September 26.—Three are dead, nine others seriously injured and some twenty more persons cut and bruised as the result of the wrecking of passenger train No. 24 on the Maine Central railroad which ran into an open switch and crashed into a freight train opposite the state fair grounds, 2½ miles east of this city, late this afternoon.

Engineer Kimball and Fireman Chapman were thrown 40 feet from their cab. Chapman was killed instantly and Kimball survived but a few moments. Almon Hodgdon, a government mail weigher, received burns which caused death later.

The train was running at a rate of 30 miles an hour when it took the open switch and ploughed into the freight cars which had been side-tracked. The engines and express car were practically demolished. The parlor car was thrown on its side with the baggage and mail cars piled on top. The smoker was turned at an angle of 45 degrees, while the passenger coaches remained upright, although derailed.

The passengers seriously injured occupied the parlor car.

GRIFFIN LEFT IN QUEER WAY

Man Disappears From Savannah Leaving Three Hundred Dollars.

Savannah, Ga., September 26.—(Special.) The police are working upon a strange disappearance. E. H. Griffin, of Meridian, Miss., is missing and no one seems to know where he is. Griffin had been operated upon recently and was scarcely able to walk without crutches. He had a pair with him and used them continually when walking.

These crutches are all that remain in his room at the Pulaski house to indicate that he has been there. Griffin was to have gone to Birmingham. When it was learned that he was missing his brother at Quitman was wired. He answered that his brother was in Birmingham.

Since the train he was supposed to take for Birmingham left, however, he has been seen in Savannah. With the clerk at the Pulaski house Griffin left two revolvers, some cartridges and $325 in money. The clerk is still holding these possessions.

SHOT WHILE SWAPPING GUNS

Accident on Train—Baggage Master Mortally Wounded.

Rochelle, Ga., September 26.—(Special.) Baggage Master Henson, of the eastbound passenger train to Savannah, this afternoon, between Penia and Seville, was shot and mortally wounded. Mr. Paschal, roadmaster of the road, did the shooting, which was accidental.

Both parties were in the baggage car and were in the act of swapping pistols, when the pistol in the hands of Mr. Paschal accidentally went off. The ball struck Mr. Henson in the stomach on the right side, just below the ribs.

GILBERT CALLED TO PROSECUTE

Solicitor Will Investigate Shooting of Talbot Negroes.

Law Abiding People of Talbot Asked That Solicitor Gilbert Push Prosecution from Start and He Consented—Preliminary Hearing Today.

Columbus, Ga., September 26.—(Special.)—Solicitor General S. P. Gilbert, of the Chattahoochee circuit, has been requested by the white citizens of Talbotton to represent the interests of the state at the preliminary rial of Seab Hall and Ed Slip, two white men who are to be arraigned at Talbotton tomorrow on a charge of shooting two negroes one day last week.

In a communication to Captain Gilbert the committee of Talbotton citizens says: "The action of the mass meeting of Talbot's citizens held last Saturday shows how our people regard the affair, and leave no doubt as to their desire to have the law fully and fairly administered."

Two of the accused parties are now under arrest and a commitment trial set for tomorrow, September 27. The prosecutors are negroes, without money or means with which to employ counsel, and we feed that it is a case that appeals to good citizens and good officials alike, hence we do not hesitate to ask that you be present at the trial to look after the interest of the state. If you cannot come in persona, it may be that you can send a representative. This is a matter of vital concern to the peace, dignity and good order of state."

Solicitor Gilbert will represent the state at the trial.

Talbotton, Ga., September 26.—(Special.)—Te preliminary trial of Seab Hall and Edward Shipp, two of the white men accused of taking part in the shooting of the two negroes last week, will take place tomorrow.

Warrants were sworn out for these two men by the mother of one of the negroes who was shot, and when they learned of the issuance of the warrants they surrendered.

Considerable interest is being manifested in the hearing tomorrow and the law abiding citizens of Talbot are anxious that the charges against the prisoners be thoroughly investigated and justice be done.

So much importance is attached to the case that Solicitor General Gilbert will be here to represent the state. It is said that Solicitor Gilbert has determined to go into the matter thoroughly and to demand that the full penalty of the law be visited on the parties guilty of shooting the negroes.

CABBAGES CUT INTO COLD SLAW

Wreck of Freight Train Occurs Near Tifton.

Tifton, Ga., September 26.—(Special.)—Train No. 29, a through freight from Macon to Jacksonville, on the Georgia Southern and Florida, was wrecked this morning about 3 o'clock at 101 mile post, 4 miles north of Tifton.

The wreck was caused by a loose wheel which a sharp curve had thrown inside striking the end of a switch frog. Eight cars were derailed and six of them split into kindling wood, not enough of one being found to get the initials and number. They were loaded with miscellaneous freight, which was scattered all over the woods, two cars of cabbage being cut into slaw. Fortunately the engine and cab, with four cars, did not leave the track and no one was hurt, although the conductor and flagman were pretty badly shaken up.

Trains were delayed about twelve hours. No. 6, northbound, transferred to No 3, which was only a few minutes behind the freight and passengers and mail were only delayed a short while. Superintendent Grady arrived from Macon with a wrecking train about 12 o'clock and soon had the track cleared. The scattered freight was brought to Tifton to be overhauled and checked. The auditor and clerk arrived today to complete this work.

MACON TALKING FREIGHT RATES

City Claims Discriminations Have Been Found To Exist.

Discrimination is Alleged to Be in the Ratio of Four to One, as Compared to Other More Favored Localities in the State.

By Will A. Branan.

Constitution Bureau, 467 Second Street, Macon, Ga., September 26.—(Special.)—There is some talk in Macon of the discrimination against Macon, as well as Augusta, Savannah and Columbus, in the matter of certain freight rates specified in circulars 301 and 302 of the railroad commission.

A complaint was made some time ago to the comission in regard to the matter, and it was shown that whereas Atlanta can ship manufactures and sirup to five cities under the reduced rate, Macon, Augusta, Savannah and Columbus can ship to only one city under the reduced rate, and that is Atlanta. The discrimination against Macon is said to be at the ratio of 4 to 1.

The chairman of the transportation committee, Howard M. Smith, today received a communication from George F. Montgomery, secretary of the commission, and it is stated that in the new circulars soon to be issued by the commission the cause of the complaint will be rectified.

TO MAKE CALL IN SIX WEEKS

Peace Conference Designed by Roosevelt Before End of Present War.

Washington, September 26.—President Roosevelt's announcement on Saturday to the delegates at the Interparliamentary Union that at an early date he would invite the nations of the world to send delegates to a second peace conference whose work should be supplemental to that of the conference at The Hague, is regarded as a historic advance toward the adjustment of the international difficulties through the medium of arbitration.

Quite naturally the question arose as to how soon the president might call the conference. He did not indicate in his address the probable time of his issuance of the call, but it can be stated that he will not await the conclusion of peace between Japan and Russia, both signatories to The Hague convention, before issuing his call. It is his present intention, in about six weeks, to bring the matter to the attention of the other nations of the world with a view to ascertaining their desires as to time and place of holding the second conference. These preliminary inquiries will be made through the department of state. As soon thereafter as the replies received shall warrant the president will issue his formal call for the conference, which probably will be early in the coming year.

Charlottesville, Va., September 26.—Captain Micajah Woods, commonwealth's attorney of Albemarle county, who had been requested to aid in the prosecution of former Mayor J. Samuel McCue, charged with the murder of his wife, today announced that he will assist Mr. Gilmer and Mr. Kerr in the prosecution of the commonwealth's case. McCue will be arraigned tomorrow morning.

WRITER NOT ON THE SCHOONER.

Captain of Lejokar Laughs at Murder Mystery.

New York, September 26.—The American coastwise schooner Lejokar arrived in port today from Wilmington, N. C., with all the members of the crew safe and sounr. A letter was received last week by the police authorities here to look out for this schooner and ascertain if the writer was on board on arrival; if not would be a sure indication that murder had been committed, as he feared bodily harm. Captain Smith said he did not know anything about the matter, and none of the crew would acknowledge having written the letter.

Scrofula

It is commonly inherited.

Few are entirely free from it.

Pale, weak, puny children are afflicted with it in nine cases out of ten, and many adults suffer from it.

Common indications are bunches in the neck, abscesses, cutaneous eruptions, inflamed eyelids, sore ears, rickets, catarrh, wasting, and general debility.

PLEHVE MURDER LAID TO JEWS

Plan Was Hatched by Geneva Terrorists.

Swiss Government Refuses to Take Any Action Against Political Offenders So Russia is Unable to Prevent Investigation of Crimes.

St. Petersburg, September 27.—While some of the features of the plot which culminated in the assassination of M. Von Plehve, the minister of the interior, still baffle the police, the authorities profess to be now perfectly certain that the conspiracy was hatched in Geneva by a half dozen Russians, mostly Jews.

The authorities know the names and addresses of the conspirators, but refuse to take legal action against them, owing to the failure of the laws of Switzerland to interfere with political refugees, and, therefore, Aussian terrorists are at liberty, from their haven in the Alps, to continue the work of assassination of Rusisan ministers so long as they are able to find emissaries willing to risk their lives, the organizers never venturing to carry out their own designs.

Six men who engineered the Von Plehve plot according to the result of the Russian police investigation are declared beyond shadow of doubt to have organized the series of political crimes with the exception of the murder of M. Bobrikoff, the governor general of Finland, which began with the assassination of M. Bogdandvitch, governor of Ufa, on May 19, 1903, and ended with the blowing up of Minister Von Plehve, on July 28, of this year. Gershunin, whose plot resulted in the assassination of Minister of the Interior Sipiaguine, on April 15, 1902, now turns out to have been only an emissary of these Geneva terrorists.

For the first time the fact is now revealed that M. Plehve's murder had been preceded by four abortive attempts to encompass his death, which the department of political police frustrated in the nick of time by the arrest of the would-be assassins, who were quietly imprisoned.

DREWS SEARCH FOR SISTER

They Say She Eloped with a Married Neighbor.

Americus, Ga., September 26.—(Special.) The Messrs. Drew, citizens of Webster county, are searching in Americus and other towns in southwestern Georgia for their young sister, Susie Drew, who they allege ran away with Jessie Davis, their neighbor and a man of family. The girl came to Americus and they assert was joined here by Davis and carried away.

Susie Drew is described as a beautiful brunette of 16, tall, handsome and well developed.

Jessie Davis, the Drews assert, left a wife and babe at his home to decamp with their sister. Sheriff Bell is aiding the brothers in efforts to locate the missing couple.

Car Inspector Meets Accident.

Albany, Ga., September 26.—(Special.)—W. M. Roquemore, chief car inspector in the yards and shops of the Albany and Northern railway, was perhaps fatally injured this forenoon by being run into by a passenger coach. The latter was thrown back against the unfortunate man by a switch engine and he was frightfully mangled. His right leg was crushed off at the knee and the left forearm had to be amputated as the result of a crushed bone.

James Bailey Hanged.

Richmond, Va., September 26.—James Bailey, colored, 18 years of age, was hanged at Courtland, Southampton county, today for the murder in June last of Cadmus Williams, also colored. The murder was the result of a dispute over a nickel. The execution passed off quietly.

Cured of Asthma

After 35 years of Suffering.

It will be gratifying to Asthmatic readers to learn that an absolute cure has at last been discovered by Dr. Schiffmann. That the remedy is an effectual one cannot be doubted after perusal of such testimony as that of C. W. Van Antwerp, Fulton, N. Y., who says: "Your remedy (Schiffmann's Asthma Cure) is the best I ever used. I bought a package of our druggist and tried it and one box entirely cured me of Asthma, and I have not had it since. I can now go to bed and sleep all night with perfect comfort, which I have not done before for 35 years and I thank you for the health that I now enjoy. I hope that you will publish this letter, that others may learn of its wonderful virtues."

TWENTY-ONE MEN PLACED ON TRIAL

Those Charged with Baxter, Fla., Affairs Before Court.

Military Guard the Men Who Are Thought to Have Had Hand in the Disorderly Conduct Near Florida Town Recently.

Jacksonville, Fla., September 26.—Under guard of the Jacksonville Light infantry those who are accused of murder and other lawless acts in connection with the Altman-Duncan feud in Baker county, in this state, were taken to Macclenny, the county seat of Baker county, today, for a preliminary trial.

The prisoners are: W. Hardy Altmann, J. W. Eddy, Andrew Hardy, Lonnie Dowling, G. J. Johns, W. H. Dowling, Charles A. Altman, Hilary Altman, Iver Harvey, Cauley Johns, Willie Dowling, A. D. Dowling, Ambler Dowling, George Johns, Jesse Altman, W. H. Johns, F. B. Crews, A. B. Crews, C. Y. Rhoden, Riley Rhoden and Jesse Sapp.

The prisoners, under military guard, arrived here at 11:15 o'clock, the train was stopped a half mile below the depot and the prisoners and military guards were marched into town, much to the disappointment of the people who had gathered at the depot.

W. H. Ellis, attorney general of the state, is here to watch the conduct of the case. Governor Jennings will grant the requisition of Governor Terrell for Hillary and Charles Altman for the murders committed on the train in Charlton county, Georgia, if the men are not held here for complicity in the murder committed by the mob. Governor Jennings was here for a half hour this morning.

The first case brought before County Judge Berry was that of assault with intent to murder W. M. Duncan from the postoffice at Baxter, September 12. Fifteen men were involved in this charge.

State's Witnesses Testify.

The state introduced three witnesses, W. M. Duncan, who was shot from the postoffice; John Duncan, his son, who was with him at the time, and Bob Thrift, brother of Constable Thrift, who was murdered a few nights later. W. M. Duncan testified that he was walking from his house to his barn, his son John with him; that he had is rifle in s hand, the muzzle pointed to the ground; that the most direct way from the house to the barn lay by the postoffice and that as he passed the postoffice he saw Jesse Altman, Cauley Johns and Len Dowling behind the counter of Altmans' store, in which the postoffice was situated; that Jesse Altman and Cauley Johns fired at him and that two shots took effect in his left side.

John Duncan's testimony corroborated that of his father.

Bob Thrift testified that W. M. Duncan, after leaving the postoffice and approaching his home, turned over the rifle to him; that Jesse Altman, Cauley Johns and Lon Dowling left the store and went in the direction of the railroad, and that they turned and again fired at W. M. Duncan, none of the shots taking effect. Having Dowling's rifle he fired at them, but missed. Thrift testified that Jesse Altman the Saturday night before the shooting asked him if he would like to give W. M. Duncan a "round up." Asked what he meant, Altman said:

"Kill him or run him out of the country."

The state rested and Henry Davis, for the defense, testified that he saw Duncan as he went to the postoffice; that Duncan had his rifle to his shoulder and that he walked up on the porch of the postoffice and put the muzzle of the rifle inside the door. After this he heard pistol shots rfom within.

All the witnesses testified seeing a crowd beyond the railroad, but neither could identify any individual.

After the conclusion of Davis' testimony the hearing was adjourned till tomorrow morning.

GUARANTEE FUND RAISED.

Business Men's Gospel Union Makes Effort to Raise Guarantee Fund of $8,000.

The Business Men's Gospel Union held a meeting last night in the Carnegie library, during which the sum of $2,500 was subscribed by business men of the city as a guarantee fund for the expenses incurred in carrying on the evangelical movement in Atlanta.

The time of the meeting was occupied by hearing reports from the different committees. After this those present discussed the various ways of spending the money to be raised by the finance committee and the possibility of taking up collections as a means toward paying the expenses.

Being reminded by Asa Candler that they were spending money which had not yet been collected, Woods White introduced a motion that a guarantee fund of $8,000 be raised, to become effective upon the raising of the entire amount.

Twenty-five hundred dollars was subscribed. Hoke Smith, Woods White, Asa Candler, J. W. Patterson, W. H. Patterson, E. C. Calloway, John Egan, George Muse and Nicholas Ittner subscribed $200 each, while P. D. Baker, J. P. Campbell, C. H. Kelly, R. H. Brown, Dr. Hull, H. Y. McCord, and M. M. Davies subscribed $100.

Ex-Governor Northen presided over the meeting. Dr. Purser closed the meeting with prayer.

The most notable feature of the revival work at present is the unusual array of cottage prayer meetings in the different sections of the city. A few of the most important meetings for tonight are as follows:

In the Boulevard district, consisting of the Jackson Hill Baptist church, Westminster Presbyterian, Fourth Presbyterian and Grace Methodist church, meetings will be held at the homes of Mrs. W. F. Clarke, 323 Houston; Mrs. Stowe, 319 Courtland avenue, leader, Rev. C. R. Nisbet, Mrs. Strickland, 133 Highland avenue; Mrs. Vaughn, corner Hillard and Ellis, leader, W. S. Featherstone; Mrs. W. A. Albright, 122 Jackson, leader, W. H. George; Mrs. Trottle, 202 Angier avenue, leader, George K. Christion; Mrs. L. B. Nelson, 304 Boulevard, leader, C. E. Newbern; Mrs. H. B. Cantey, 139 Forrest avenue, leader, W. S. Thompson.

In the North Atlanta district at the homes of Mrs. Fuller, 416 Peachtree, George Beatty, leader; Mrs. Miller, 117 Forrest, A. Arrington, leader; Mrs. Scales, 48 Forrest avenue, E. E. Eagan, leader; Washington seminiary, R. O. Flinn, D. D., leader; Judge J. T. Pendleton's, 666 Piedmont avenue, W. A. Wagoner, leader; Mrs. C. P. Goree, 425 Courtland, Mr. Bell, leader; Mrs. Hazard, 27 Baltimore block, L. Putnam, leader; R. H. Jones, 168 Merritts avenue; D. H. Frazier, leader; Judge Kontz, Kimball and West Peachtree, D. E. Luther, leader.

In the Luckie street district at the homes of Mrs. W. A. Spinks, 78 Jones avenue; Mrs. Wadkins, 403 Luckie; Mrs. J. P. Fahr, 20 Orme; Dr. B. F. Riley, Orme and Baker; Mrs. Mary Edwards, 21 Orme; Mrs. Gray, 127 Walton; Mr. Turner, 62 Simpson; W. H. Holcomb, Spring and Simpson; C. E. Chase, 92 Venable; G. A. Carroway, 139 Spring.

The public is urged to attend the cottage prayer meetings at these homes. All meetings begin at 8 o'clock.

SHORT ITEMS OF INTEREST

THE BODIES OF T. C. MORFUTT, Mrs. Morfutt and Edgar Morfutt passed through Atlanta yesterday morning en route to Gaffney, S. C., where they will be laid to rest some time tomorrow. The father and mother were instantly killed in the collision near Knoxville last Saturday morning and their son Edgar died of his injuries.

CLARENCE JENKINS, A YOUNG white man whose home is on Venable street, was yesterday thrown from a wagon in which he was riding along Marietta street and was severely injured. The injured man was carried into a drug store at the corner of Marietta and Pine streets, where his injuries were given the necessary attention, after which he was removed to his home.

MRS. JOHN GROOVER, 55 YEARS old, died Sunday night at her residence, 11 Glenn street. The body will be taken to Marietta, Ga., this morning for interment.

T. W. McNISH, WHO DIED AT THE Soldiers' home Saturday night, was buried yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. An escort from the Soldiers' home attended the funeral. The interment was at Westview.

NEXT MONTH, ON THE 9TH TO BE exact, there will be instituted in Atlanta a court of the Order of Isabella, an organization which takes its name from the queen of Spain when she and her king, Ferdinand, equipped the flotilla which brought Columbus and his volunteers to the shores of what was then an unknown country, but which has since become one of the reigning powers of the civilized world. The Daughters of Isabella are women who are given to education, to charity and to aiding and assisting those who need the help of the church. Primarily the organization had its birth in the Catholic church, but anyone is invited to join in the good work. Courts have been established in Augusta and in Savannah and the indications are that Atlanta, Charleston and Macon will follow suit.

REPORTS COMING IN FROM ALL over the state indicate that work day was a great success and that large amounts for the Baptist, Methodist and Presbyterian homes, the Home for the Friendless and the Sheltering Arms have already begun to pour in. The Baptist and Methodist Sunday schools at West End each gave nearly $70. Trinity Sunday school gave $100 and at the College Park Methodist, where the attendance was small, the remarkable collection of $125 was made.

A SINGULAR COINCIDENCE IN THE names of two ministers—Dr. J. D. Hammond, of Nashville, Tenn., who is connected with the educational department of the Southern Methodist church, and Dr. J. D. Hammond, of California, connected with the mission work of the Northern Methodist church—has led to confusion where the two divines are known. Charges were recently preferred against Dr. Hammond, of California, and as a result he was deprived of pastorate work. Dr. J. D. Hammond, of Nashville, Tenn., is a brother of Judge W. R. Hammond, of this city, and there is no relation between their family and that of Dr. Hammond, of the Northern Methodist church.

MR. AND MRS. EUGENE BARRER, of 84 Jackson street, wish to express to their friends their thanks for kindness shown them during the illness and death of their son, Eugene.

JAMES L. KEY, ONE OF THE FIVE candidates for mayor, will hold a second ward meeting tonight at 8 o'clock in the city council chamber. Mr. Key will discuss the mayoralty race and bring out the different issues in the campaign.

WILL ASK FOR RELIEF.

Rev. A. M. Williams to Give Up His Charge.

Savannah, Ga., September 26.—(Special) Rev. A. M. Williams, pastor of Trinity Methodist church will ask the south Georgia conference to relieve him of his charge at the coming meeting. Since coming to Savannah Mr. Williams has worked and preached against social evils and is one of the best known ministers of the city.

Free Thinkers Displease Pope.

Rome, September 26.—The pope has addressed to the cardinal vicar a protest against the congress of free thinkers held here lats week. The text will be published in the Osservatore Romao this evening with a letter from the cardinal vicar inviting Catholics to attend a service of atonement to be held in all the basilicas of Rome on Thursday next.

POLITICAL TALK STIRS FILIPINOS

Campaign Documents Reprinted in Islands, Says Wright.

Inhabitants of Eastern Possessions Think Themselves Already Fitted for Inoependence, Says Governor General in Letter to President.

Washington, September 26.—President Roosevelt is in receipt of a letter from General Luke E. Wright, governor of the Philippines, in which the governor discusses frankly some of the conditions which he encounters in directing the government of the islands. Under date of August 25, General Wright wrote in part:

"The effect of the continued discussion as to the capacity of the Filipino for self-government and his immediate or ultimate independence is having its effect here and makes our task more difficult than it otherwise would be. The less a man is equipped with intelligence and those qualities which make for good citizenship, the more easily can he be persuaded that he is the possessor of all these qualities. These people have their full share of ambition and vanity and they also have their full share of reckless, half formed characters who are ready for intrigue in any direction which promises them profit or power. It is this class which has largely given force and direction to the Aglipayan movement and has recruited its ranks from the ignorant and dangerous elements.

"In this general campaign I may say to you as a matter of information that the agitation in the United States for Filipino independence and the spoken and written utterances of prominent men there, who are urging it, are all brought here and published in the native newspapers and are being made the text of editorials, insisting that the Filipino people are now ready to become an independent nation.

"The effect of all this is distinctly injurious. Its tendency is to restore the influence of old insurrection leaders and to make them active in preaching the old propaganda. This in turn has the effect of demolishing and weakening the more conservative and thoughtful of the Filipinos who fear that if they speak out as they really think they would be considered the enemies of their people and lose their prestige with them.

"Those of the more prominent and best educated and who naturally have their ambitions, are inclined to join in the general cry."

MANY GALLONS DESTROYED.

Dispensary Constables Break Up Very Large Still.

Spartanburg, S. C., September 26.—(Special.)—This morning shortly after midnight a party of dispensary constables destroyed over 3,000 gallons of beer in twenty large fermenters, and also broke up a still. This is one of the largest seizures ever made in this district. The still was abandoned before the constables reached it, and accordingly no arrests were made.

Schooner Goes Ashore.

Jacksonville, Fla., September 26.—The British schooner Florence, from Cuba to Jacksonville, light, went ashore 4 miles south of Mosqueto inlet Sunday afternoon. Captain Broward, of the tug Three Friends, went to the scene this morning, and if possible will pull the vessel off and tow her to Jacksonville. The Florence is a new vessel. British Consul Sudlow went to the scene of the wreck this morning. Captain Brooks telegraphed to Jacksonville that the crew was safe.

Dwelling is Burned.

Dawson, Ga., September 26.—(Special.) The dwelling house occupied by George Commander, on Judge J. A. Laing's farm, southeast of Dawson, was destroyed by fire last night. Origin of the fire is unknown. Loss about $1,100; insurance $575 in the Farmers' Mutual Life Insurance Company of Georgia.

LAWYERS MEET IN MOUND CITY

Philippine Tariff Attacked by President Hagerman.

Head of Association Declares Mandate Should Go Forth Against Tariff Laws Affecting Territory Under the Stars and Stripes.

St. Louis, September 26.—The largest and most representative gathering of the American Bar Association marked the opening session of the twenty-seventh annual convention of the session which convened today in Festival hall, on the world's fair grounds.

Among the six hundred members of the association, who were in attendance, was Associate Justice Brewer, of the United States supreme court; Hon. John W. Foster, former secretary of state, and Sir William Kennedy, chief justice of the high court of England.

During the convention, which continues until Wednesday noon, when the universal congress of lawyers and jurists will assemble under the auspices of the association, it is expected several important discussions will arise, chief of which will be the Alaska boundary question.

Of the several reports which will attract particular attention, the report of the commercial committee is prominently mentioned. This is due to the fact that at the 1903 convention this report was the center of controversy, and it is understood that relative to certain points at issue, a satisfactory settlement was not reached.

The meeting was called to order by James Hagerman, of St. Louis, president of the association.

President Hagerman's Speech.

President James Hagerman said in part:

"Since the last meeting of this association congress has passed one very important act, of far-reaching consequence to regulate shipping in trade between ports of the United States and ports or places in the Philippine archipelago and ports or places in the Philippines.

In my judgment the need of the times is that the mandate should go forth to the American people as the judgment of their bench and bar, that territories can only be permanently held by the United States and that there shall be no tariff laws between such territories and the states of the union, but all shall be within that zone of free trade which has hertofore included our states and territories. In the light of such mandate and with a knowledge of the conditions which it exacts the American people may intelligently decide that territory is to be permanently retained.

"I am not one of those who think that it is absolutely essential that all territories of the United States should be admitted to statehood, for I believe that under our system territories can be governed as such in harmony without republican-democratic constitutional principles. The point which I emphasize is, and it seems to me that the ultimate judgment of the lawyers of the country will enforce it, that the inhabitants of our territories must be entitled to United States citizenship and they must have free and unvexed trade relations with us. Otherwise there will be a departure from constitutional methods and principles which will be revolutionary in their nature, and lead us to an imperialism which is inconsistent with republican-democratic institutions."

Following the president's address, the election of members and the report of the secretary, the treasurer and executive were in order. The discussion of a paper presented by J. M. Dickinson, of Chicago, on the "Alaskan boundary case," concluded the day's session.

After the adoption of reports of officers, a general council was elected, including the following:

Alabama, W. H. Thomas; Florida, R. Williams; Georgia, Reuben R. Arnold; North Carolina, J. Crocker Biggs; South Carolina, P. M. Mordecai; Virginia, F. Griffin.

HOTEL MEN ENJOY DINNER.

Local Association Met Last Night at the Aragon Hotel.

The Atlanta Hotel Men's association, at a meeting held at the Aragon hotel last night, enjoyed a splendid dinner.

The place cards of the dinner were printed, and were neat souvenirs of the occasion. A number of subjects of interest to the hotel men were discussed. The next regular meeting of the association will be held at Carl Witt's restaurant on the second Monday in October.

Those present last night were: Messrs. James E. Hickey, Kimball house; Will V. Zimmer Piedmont hotel; J. Lee Barnes Aragon hotel; Ralph Van Laudingham, Majestic hotel; Dabney Scoville, Marion hotel; Houston Harper, Piedmont hotel; Bruno Bukofzer, Carl Witt's restaurant; Harry Silverman, Etowah cafe, and Henry R. Durand Durand's restaurant.

DEATH OF W. C. ROBINSON.

He Was the Chief Inspector of the Southern Bell Telephone Company.

W. C. Robinson, chief inspector of the Southern Bell Telephone Company, died last night at 11:25 o'clock at his residence, 86 Capitol avenue, after an illness which lasted for nine weeks.

No funeral arrangements have as yet been announced. Mr. Robinson was born in Orange, N. J., where his family lives at present. He was 48 years old. About twenty years ago he came to Atlanta to accept a position with the Southern Bell Telephone Company, for whom he has worked ever since, rising to his present position through efficient and faithful service.

He was a member of the Christian church. He is survived by his father and mother, three brothers, Stephen P. Robinson, G. R. Robinson and Arthur E. Robinson, all of Orange, N. J., and a sister, Mrs. Louis Bowen, of Atlanta, a sister in law, Mrs. C. H. Robinson, and a nephew, Clarence H. Robinson.

Joe Cannon in Nebraska.

Hastings, Neb., September 26.—Speaker Cannon, accompanied by Congressman Watson and several prominent Nebraska republicans, contiued his tour of Nebraska today. His principal speech was made here this afternoon.

HIGH CLASS DRUGGISTS AND — OTHERS.

The better class of druggists, everywhere, are men of scientific attainments and high integrity, who devote their lives to the welfare of their fellow men in supplying the best of remedies and purest medicinal agents of known value, in accordance with physicians' prescriptions and scientific formula. Druggists of the better class manufacture many excellent remedies, but always under original or officinal names and they never sell false brands, or imitation medicines. They are the men to deal with when in need of anything in their line, which usually includes all standard remedies and corresponding adjuncts of a first-class pharmacy and the finest and best of toilet articles and preparations and many useful accessories and remedial appliances. The earning of a fair living, with the satisfaction which arises from a knowledge of the benefits conferred upon their patrons and assistance to the medical profession, is usually their greatest reward for long years of study and many hours of daily toil. They all know that Syrup of Figs is an excellent laxative remedy and that it gives universal satisfaction, and therefore they are selling many millions of bottles annually to the well informed purchasers of the choicest remedies, and they always take pleasure in handing out the genuine article bearing the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package. They know that in cases of colds and headaches attended by biliousness and constipation and of weakness or torpidity of the liver and bowels, arising from irregular habits, indigestion, or over-eating, that there is no other remedy so pleasant, prompt and beneficial in its effects as Syrup of Figs, and they are glad to sell it because it gives universal satisfaction.

Owing to the excellence of Syrup of Figs, the universal satisfaction which it gives and the immense demand for it, imitations have been made, tried and condemned, but there are individual druggists to be found, here and there, who do not maintain the dignity and principles of the profession and whose greed gets the better of their judgment, and who do not hesitate to recommend and try to sell the imitations in order to make a larger profit. Such preparations sometimes have the name—" Syrup of Figs"—or "Fig Syrup" and of some piratical concern, or fictitious fig syrup company, printed on the package, but they never have the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of the package. The imitations should be rejected because they are injurious to the system. In order to sell the imitations they find it necessary to resort to misrepresentation or deception, and whenever a dealer passes off on a customer a preparation under the name of "Syrup of Figs" or "Fig Syrup," which does not bear the full name of the California Fig Syrup Co. printed on the front of the package, he is attempting to deceive and mislead the patron who has been so unfortunate as to enter his establishment, whether it be large or small, for if the dealer resorts to misrepresentation and and deception in one case he will do so with other medicinal agents, and in the filling of physicians' prescriptions, and should be avoided by every one who values health and happiness. Knowing that the great majority of druggists are reliable, we supply the immense demand for our excellent remedy entirely through the druggists, of whom it may be purchased everywhere, in original packages only, at the regular price of fifty cents per bottle, but as exceptions exist it is necessary to inform the public of the facts, in order that all may decline or return any imitation which may be sold to them. If it does not bear the full name of the Company—California Fig Syrup Co.—printed on the front of every package, do not hesitate to return the article and to demand the return of your money, and in future go to one of the better class of druggists who will sell you what you wish and the best of everything in his line at reasonable prices.

THEATERS.

At the Grand.

"McFadden's Flats" was the attraction at the Grand last night. Two dwarfs are the principals in the alleged fun-making. The so-called comedy is about on a par with the principal freaks, but a top-heavy house cheered lustily. As a comedy it is almost as bad as it is old. ALAN ROGERS.

"Peggy from Paris," George Ade's merry musical play, which has scored distinct hits and achieved long runs in New York, Boston and Chicago, will be the attraction at the Grand Wednesday and Thursday nights and Thursday matinee, when it will be offered by Henry W. Savage and by the only organization which is appearing in this successful melodious comedy. Mr. Savage has only one company in "Peggy from Paris," and that organization will appear in this city. Hence theater patrons will be certain of the excellence of the company and the richness and beauty of the production. "Peggy from Paris" is one of the most popular musical plays ever produced, a fact known to all persons who are in touch with the theatre. There is no doubt of its wit and merriment, for its author is George Ade, the famous humorist, whose writings have delighted readers in this country and abroad. It has been said of the play that it contains much of Mr. Ade's cleverest wit and satire. William Loraine wrote the music for "Peggy from Paris." He is the composer of "Zamona" and "Salome," a guarantee of the catchy ear-tinkling and graceful qualities of the airs in the comedy. It is sparkling music attuned to the scintillating wit of the play. "Peggy from Paris" will be one of the notable engagements of the season in this city and admirers of all that is best in musical comedy will wish to hear it.

On October 3d and 4th, "Candida" will be the attraction at the Grand with a magnificent company of players to portray its interesting character types.

This is the famous comedy that captured New York last season and made a triumphant run in the face of almost insurmountable obstacles. But notwithstanding that it was forced to move from theater to theater, on account of the enforcement of fire ordinances on defective theater construction, and that the season was one of the worst for theatrical ventures in many years, it kept increasing its admirers until a craze for "Candida" swept the city.

"Candida" is one of the surprises of the theatrical world and few who esteem what is best in the theater will miss it. It is a happy combination for the student, author, professional and literary man, as well as for the ordinary searcher for entertainment. The characters include a manly clergyman, an anaemic young poet, a beautiful, noble wife, a hoggish man of business, a weak-kneed curate and a sharp tongued typewriter. Humorous incident and brilliant wit add zest to the enjoyment of the performance.

The Bijou.

Three years ago Jake Wells opened the Bijou theater, and since that time has furnished the Atlanta theatergoers with some unusually clever and strong attractions at popular prices, but it has never before been his good fortune to be able to present an attraction of the magnitude and excellence of this week, and at no advance in the regular and popular scale of prices.

The bill is a melodrama entitled "The Peddler," and Joe Welch, one of the mighty few successful Hebrew character comedians, is the star. That the artist scored an instant individual hit last night was in evdence from the moment he made his appearance, until the final scene in the best offering that has been ever seen at the Bijou.

While the play is a melodrama, it is of the highest class of the modern sort, and a most interesting and entertaining attraction. It possesses quaiinications that make it acceptable to all classes, and it will in all probability play to the greatest number of people yet recorded in a week at the play house.

Welch is a graduate from the vaudeville ranks. For some time he was one of the highest salaried headliners, and was induced to join the company of two famous comedy players in New York city, and three years ago was engaged by his present managers for this play, and has scored great successes in the high priced theaters. By special arangement the attraction is being produced on the Wells circuit, and it is one of the strongest ever offered at the scale of admissions.

The stage mountings are exceptionally attractive, and in keeping with the situations and the company is a well-balanced one. Several specialties are introduced, that tend to liven up the entertainment and do not fall at all short of the intention.

FIRE DESTROYS SAW MILL.

Mill Burned at the Junction of Peachtree Road and Fifteenth Street.

A saw mill on the Peachtree road at the junction of Fifteenth street, caught fire last night about 9:30, and was burned to the ground. There was a large pile of lumber near the mill, but only a portion of this was destroyed.

How the fire originated is not known. It was discovered by people passing along Peachtree road. Nothing could be done to check the flames, as the locality was far removed from a water supply. In a few minutes the flames had completely destroyed the mill and a portion of the lumber. The fire made a bright blaze, which was seen over the entire city.

The mill was the property of Liddell & Johnson, and was located on the Collier property. It was used to saw up timber which was being removed while the land was cleared up.

The exact loss by the fire could not be ascertained last night, but it is believed that $1,000 will cover it.

Nervo-Spinal Diseases.

I have recently perfected a system for the cure of the more serious nervous, spinal and muscular diseases. My treatment has been tested in public hospitals and sanitariums with gratifying success. It is a humane, simple method with none of the old notions of branding, hanging by the wrists and so forth, which were so much in vogue. My system will be of permanent benefit to sufferers from epilepsy, St. Vitus' dance, paralysis, locomotor ataxia, twitching of the body or the skin, inability to move the muscles for walking, etc. Please take this announcement as an invitation to call on me for examination. It will give me an opportunity to explain my system to you and to show you by actual demonstration that I am able to control these diseases. I make no charge whatever for examination or chat, so kindly call soon. I also invite physicians to send their serious cases to me. Gratifying results also have been obtained by persons who used this system in their own homes, far away from me, but under my direction. I only advise this when the patient is unable to visit me in person. If sufferers will write me I will be glad to enter into a correspondence with them and advise them free of charge what to do. The treatment is effective no matter what the cause of the disease is, whether hereditary or acquired through another disease. But I can explain all this better to you in person or by letter, so call on me or write me. My address is J. Newton Hathaway, M. D., 33 Inman Bldg., 22½ S. Broad St., Atlanta, Ga. Office hours 8:30 a. m. to 8 p. m. Sundays, 10 a. m. to 1 p. m.

KILLED HIS WIFE; WOUNDED GIRL

Then Louis Carmichael Takes His Own Life.

Had Threatened to Take Life of Wife Because She Refused to Live With Him When He Met Her on Sunday.

Winston-Salem, N. C., September 26.—One of the most horrible tragedies in the history of Forsyth county occurred at 7 o'clock this morning at Kerneraville, this county. Louis F. Carmichael, a carpenter by trade, aged 64, killed his wife, aged 50 years, seriously wounded his 12-year-old stepdaughter and then cut his own throat with a razor and shot himself with a pistol. The weapon was fired four times, three balls taking effect on the right side of the head. He lived until 10:30, but was never conscious after the tragedy.

Mr. Carmichael and his wife separated several weeks ago. Yesterday he went to her home, near the passenger depot, and told her that if she did not consent to live with him again he would kill her before tonight.

After eating breakfast this morning at the home of his sister, Mrs. A. Lewis, he took a razor and pistol and went direct to the home of his wife. When the husband entered the kitchen, the wife was over the stove preparing breakfast for herself and children. It is presumed that she again refused another request to live with him and that he thereupon took the razor and cut his wife's throat, nearly severing her head from her body. The wife ran out in the yard and fell upon the grass, where she expired in a few minutes.

Carmichael then turned upon Miss D. Wiggins, his wife's youngest daughter, with the razor, cutting two severe gashes on her breast. He then turned the razor and pistol with fatal effect upon himself.

Those who talked with Carmichael a short while before the crime was committed say he was sober. The impression is general here that no sane man could have committed such a crime.

Carmichael's remains will be buried in the Methodist cemetery here tomorrow.

The attending physician says he sees no indication or symptoms that will prevent the recovery of the girl.

FARMERS SOON TO MEET.

Institute of Sixth District Expected to Be Large.

Valdosta, Ga., September 26.—(Special.) The Farmers' institute for the sixth senatorial district will be held here Saturday, October 15. A very fine programme has been arranged and the indications are that the meeting will be largely attended. State Director Harvie Jordan will conduct the institute. A barbecue and basket dinner will be served. The institute will be held at Pine Park.

The following subjects will be discussed:

"Common Law in Agriculture," by Hon. Walter B. Hill, chancellor of the state university, Athens.

"Chemistry in Agriculture," by Dr. H. C. White, president State College of Agriculture, Athens.

"Care and Handling of Beef Cattle," by Professor C. L. Willoughby, Experiment, Ga.

"Truck Farming and Cantaloupes," by Major W. L. Giessner, land and industrial agent of the Georgia Southern and Florida railway, Macon, Ga.

"Marketing Farm Products, and Commercial Fertilizers," by Director Harvie Jordan, Monticello, Ga.

"Injurious Insects and Plant Diseases," by Wilmon Newell, state entomologist, Atlanta.

"Agricultural Education," by Professor J. S. Stewart, Athens, Ga.

"Improvement of the Country Home," by Miss Lizzie O. Thomas, of Atlanta.

The Farmers' Club of Lowndes county is now actively at work arranging for the barbecue, which is to be given in connection with the occasion. The people of Berrien and Echols counties are deeply interested and will send large delegations.

Killing of Middleborough.

Middleborough, Ky., Sept. 26.—Jefferson Etter killed John Wolf in a fit of jealous rage, and also shot and slightly wounded his own wife. In his dying agonies Wolf managed to shoot Etter through the bowels.

TROUBLE LURKS IN GURNEY FINE

Embassy Attaches Free of Legal Responsibility.

Massachusetts Justice Who Fined Third Secretary of British Legation Rendered Himself Liable to Imprisonment Under Federal Statutes.

Washington, September 26.—Notice of the action of a special justice at Lee, Mass., in fining Hugh Gurney, third secretary of the British embassy, was received at the state department in a telegram from Mr. Raikes, first secretary of the embassy, who is at Lenox.

The department immediately transmitted this telegram in substance to the governor of Massachusetts, with the suggestion that he do whatever might be necessary to secure the diplomatic immunity of Mr. Gurney.

It is believed at the department that the matter may be far more serious than the local officials at Lee seem to regard it. In the first place, by constitutional and statutory law, th epersons attached to an embassy are expressly relieved from any legal responsibility, and the exemption even extends to domestic servants.

Section 4063, revised statues, declares that any writ prosecuted in any court of the United States or of a state or by any judge or justice intended to cause the arrest and imprisonment of any public minister or his servant shall be void.

The succeeding section, 4064, revised statutes, provides that every person by whom any such arrest is obtained or prosecuted, whether as party or attorney, and every officer concerned in its execution shall be deemed a violator of the law of nations and a disturber of the public repose and shall be imprisoned for not more than three years and fined at the discretion of the court. It will remain for the governor of Massachusetts to take initial action in this case, which will require prompt redress.

The last important precedent occurred in 1892 at the picnic resort of Bay Ridge, near Baltimore, when Dr. George, an attache of the Swiss legation in Washington, was arrested by a deputy sheriff on the charge of being a pickpocket and was searched and otherwise treated in a humiliating manner by the local authorities.

The state department secured his release at an early moment through the governor of Maryland, who also caused the dismissal of the offending deputy and extended an apology for the incident.

Though the Swiss minister might have pressed further punishment, he accepted what had been done as sufficient, but the matter was deemed of such importance that he could not give this notice to our government until the Swiss federal council had formally considered the case and expressed itself satisfied.

Pittsfield, Mass., September 26.—Hugh Guernsey, secretary of the British embassy, was today fined in the police court at Lee, on two charges. One for contempt of court, he was fined $25. A similar fine was imposed in a case charging him with speeding his automobile in Stockbridge Sunday.

Mr. Gurney, when arraigned, positively refused to plead, claiming that as "he was the third secretary of his Brittanic majesty, he could not, under international law, he arrested or held for any crime."

Special Judge Phelps said he did not recognize international law in his court and informed the defendant that he must enter a plea. Mr. Gurney persisted in his refusal. Then a fine was imposed for contempt of court.

Mr. Gurney did not have in his possession sufficient money to pay the fine and he was committed in the charge of the officer who made the arrest. The officer accompanied Mr. Gurney to Lenox, where the money was secured.

MUCH FEELING ON BOTH SIDES

Chief Westbrook's Case Now on Trial at Albany.

Albany, Ga., September 26.—(Special.)—The trial of Chief of Police Westbrook began this morning at 10 o'clock before Mayor Lippitt, ex-officio chairman of the board, and Commissioners D. Bosnan, M. Weslosky, A. P. Coles, J. T. Mann and Edward L. Wright.

The case grew out of the sensational charges against Westbrook made at the auditorium during the recent chautauqua assembly by Dr. Len G. Broughton, of Atlanta. The minister refused to accede to the demand to retract the charges he had made against the chief of police and the next day he was attacked by Westbrook in a barber shop while being shaved. The chief of police struck Broughton a couple of blows and the minister picked up an iron spittoon to return the compliment when friends interfered. Later citizens relieved Dr. Broughton of further responsibility in the matter by taking up the charges and pushing them.

Colonel Jesse W. Walters is conducting the case for the prosecution and Colonel W. E. Wooten is the leading counsel for the defense. Colonel Wooten was not present when the court convened this morning, having been called to Camilla to attend a hearing on a motion for a new trial in the Whitley Williford case.

Feeling Intense.

Feeling is very intense on both sides of the controversy as the matter has generated more local bitterness than has been known in years.

The trial today was largely consumed in the settlement of preliminiary matters.

A number of witnesses were examined at the afternoon session, which lasted five hours. The testimony was not important except in a few cases, though the examination was not completed. Other witnesses will be called tomorrow morning and the trial may last several days. It is possible, however, that it will be concluded tomorrow.

There is deep interest in the hearing and there has been a throng about the city hall all day, though the general public has not been admitted to the chamber where the hearing is being concluded.

FIGHT ASSUMES SERIOUS SHAPE

Augusta Ministers Want License Placed at $1,000.

Augusta, Ga., September 26.—(Special.) The conflict between the ministers of the city and city council has taken definite shape, and is assuming serious aspects.

The ministers met yesterday at noon and for the first time gave positive intimation of their plans. They declined an invitation to again come before council and make their contentions, and come out positively for $1,000 fee for city licenses for bar rooms.

The present license is $200.

The ministers went before council at the last regular meeting and asked that two liquor licenses in purely residential localities, for which applications had been made, be not granted. They also made protest over the previous action of council in granting Broad street for a street fair, which was done over a standing petition of the Ministerial Alliance.

Council igranted the two liquor licenses and ignored the street fair protest. The result was that a general liquor crusade began to be rumored and on yesterday from nearly every pulpit in the city preachers thundered against existing evils.

The mayor and members of council decided to have another meeting and give the preachers a second opportunity to make their protests. It was to act upon this that the ministers met yesterday in special session.

One Killed in Wreck.

Peoria, Ill., September 26.—As a result of a washout on the Burlington road near Elmwood, two passenger cars were ditched today, one man killed, three persons were fatally injured. The wreck occurred at the junction of a small stream and the Kickapoo creek. A terrific rainstorm visited that section last night, and the roadbed of the track washed out for a short distance, leaving the rails suspended in the air. The train struck the unsupported rails at a high speed.

WIFE'S SISTER WENT WITH HIM

A. S. Daniel and Pretty Young Sister in Law Elope.

Miss Easton, the Missing Sister is Only Seventeen Years Old. Daniel Wrote to Wife Saying He and Miss Easton Had Eloped.

A. S. Daniel, a traveling man of Fort McPherson, has been missing since last Saturday, and with him has disappeared the pretty young sister of his wife. That Daniel has eloped with his sister in law there is little room to doubt, since he took the trouble to inform his wife by letter the day he and the young girl decided to leave.

The missing young lady is Miss Elizabeth Eaton, and she is not more than 17 years of age. Miss Eaton lives in Huntsville, Ala., and was visiting her sister. She is blue-eyed and rosy-cheeked and has a wealth of golden hair clinging around a fair and beautiful brow. All of this seems to have been too much for the susceptibility of Daniel, and he proceeded to fall violently in love with his lovely young sister in law, and what is stranger still, Miss Eaton returned the affection of her sister's husband.

Last Saturday Miss Eaton told her sister she would visit the city for the purpose of making a few purchases. Later in the day Daniel informed his wife that he would have to take a trip to Rome on business. But the trusting wife and sister was unsuspicious. She had never dreamed of any unnatural affection between her husband and sister. She did not know that an elopement had been carefully planned and that she and her little child were to be cruelly deserted.

Had Planned an Elopement.

When Saturday night came and her sister did not return home, Mrs. Daniel became uneasy and caused a search to be made for the missing young lady. Even then she did not suspect what had happened. The terrible truth was not revealed to her until she received a letter from her husband which he had mailed in Atlanta Saturday afternoon at 6 o'clock. In that letter he stated he had fallen in love with his pretty young sister in law and no longer cared for his wife. He stated that his love was reciprocated and he and his new sweetheart would fly to some place, where they expected to live happily together. He concluded the letter by saying that if he was not exposed in the newspapers he would send his wife money regularly, otherwise he would not send her a penny.

Mrs. Daniel reported the matter to the police yesterday morning and Officer Zach Rowan was detailed to work on the case. He ascertained that the missing couple had left the city, but to what point they were destined he could not find out.

Mrs. Daniel is heart-broken over the faithlessness of her husband and the perfidy of her sister. She says she will make every possible effort to apprehend the runaway couple and bring them back to Atlanta.

ATLANTA, GA., September 27, 1904

Now for Georgia day at St. Louis.

Judge Parker has given Mr. Roosevelt a Roland for his Oliver.

Judge Parker has sounded the keynotes with a Roderick Dhu blast.

There is a bumper corn crop, which will tend to hold the wheat bulls level.

A horse swappers' convention isn't a circumstance to the convention of weather prophets assembled at Peoria, Ill.

There is a suspicion that Tom Lawson's think tank is unduly "frenzied," also. The straw hat has its inning again.

Governor Odell doesn't have to read between the lines to see himself called a thief in the democratic state platform.

Parker is an all-around harmonizer. Witness the lovefeast of the New York democracy, but lately rent by factions.

The Massachusetts democrats have picked a gubernatorial nominee who has the distinction of looking like Judge Parker.

Port Arthur is only out of smokeless ammunition. There are sights on the hill slopes there that were better mantled in smoke.

It is believed that the republican managers will see to it that the Fall River mills are opened before the presidential election.

The Russians charge that the Japanese losses are so appalling that the Tokio government is afraid to make the figures public.

Probably General Corbin just wouldn't have dared to marry while wearing Uncle Sam's uniform had not the lady been worth a million.

The New York Sun speaks of "the raising of the race issue by the southern politicians." Thought it was the Chicago platform that raised the race issue.

It is said that Pension Commissioner Ware much resembles President Roosevelt, who appointed him to the office merely because he had read some of his alleged poetry.

No, "Curious Reader," Theodore Roosevelt does not happen to be the author of the oft-quoted expressin, "What's the constitution between friends?" The sentiment is his, however.

There is not likely to be a winter campaign in Manchuria. Even as far south as Mukden it is said the thermometer ranges around 40 below zero, and at Harbin it is too low for the mercury to register.

It is said that Divine Right Baer, with whom Teddy had some dealings in forcing a settlement of the anthracite strike, has conceived such an admiration for Teddy that he has contributed liberally to the republican campaign fund.

Dr. William H. Maxwell, superintendent of public schools of New York city, declares thousands of children cannot learn and are hard to manage in school simply because they are hungry. He advocates the city furnishing a hearty midday meal for all public school pupils, as is done in Paris.

The Houston Post expresses wonder how in the world Fairbanks ever attained the prominence he enjoys. Is it possible that the esteemed Post has never read one of the senator's statesmanly forensic efforts on the floor of the senate. Th Post should know that Mr. Fairbanks is a great statesman.

The following is from the report of the Huntsville, Ala., special grand jury which recently found many true bills against lynchers, and it applies with equal force to the mob law situation in Georgia:

"The issue presented to us is clear cut. We have reached a crisis. The question is whether we shall be ruled by a mob or by the law; whether we shall have anarchy or government; whether an armed and unreasoning rabble whose worst passions have been inflamed and prejudices aroused shall be permitted to trample our statutes under foot and openly commit most atrocious crimes merely because they happen to have brute force at their command, or whether we shall say the law is supreme; it is the only safeguard of our property, our liberty and our lives; it shall be upheld, respected and enforced."

Get Out the Vote.

The action of Chairman M. J. Yeomans, of the state democratic executive committee, in urging upon Georgia democrats the importance of getting out a full party vote in the state election to be held on October 5, is both wise and timely. The reasons Chairman Yeomans enumerates for such action are cogent and of prime importance, both for local and national plitical reasons.

The fact that the vote of Georgia in a general election is generally exceedingly light is seized upon by opposition partisan and sectional papers as proof that the negro is disfranchised for race reasons, or, if voting, "counted out." Nothing could be further from the truth, as fair-minded republicans, resident in Georgia, can attest.

The reason why the fall elections show a vote entirely out of proportion to the number of voters of legal age in Georgia is two-fold: In the case of the white voters, who are overwhelmingly democratic, the contest has already been fought out in the primary election of the early summer, at which the party candidates are nominated. The regular election in the fall merely amounts to a perfunctory ratification of the action of the primary, and the result is so much of a foregone conclusion that many voters will not suffer any little inconenience or loss of time incident to going to the polls a second time, remaining at home and allowing the returns to indicate a surprising lack of interest and representative action as viewed by uninitiated outsiders. In the case of republican voters, the responsibility for inadequate representation at the polls must rest upon the republican organization in Georgia, which rarely makes a nomination for any office, aside from presidential electors, not because of the hopelessness of a free ballot and a fair count, as our friends at the north delude themselves with believing, but largely because the negro does not accept his citizenship seriously enough, as does the white voter, to keep himself square on the tax bocks. The voter in Georgia who is a tax delinquent cannot register, and the application is absolutely without race discrimination.

This simple fact—a condition that quite commonly obtains in most of the states of the union—will explain the whole question of so-called negro disfranchisement in Georgia.

The Constitution would respectfully ask the esteemed Boston Herald to take notice. In a recent issue this excellent journal devoted a column editorial to "Voting in Georgia," in which the usual northern ignorance of local suffrage conditions was exploited with the evident purpose of reflecting on the integrity and representative quality of the ballot in Georgia. The Herald makes comparison between the respective election returns of Georgia and Iowa, states that have practically the same population. It shows that in the state of Iowa 514,598 votes were cast for presidential electors in 1900, whereas in Georgia but 111,381 votes were cast, 77,353 of which were cast for Bryan and 34,028 for McKinley. In Iowa there are less than 5,000 negroes of voting age; in Georgia, 233,256. The white voters of Georgia number 274,760, leaving the negroes in a minority of over 40,000, if all paid their taxes and were registered. However, many negroes do vote in Georgia, and many of them vote the democratic ticket, paradoxical as this may seem to some of our republican critics at the north.

One must understand local suffrage conditions in the south to be competent to fairly analyze the vote here and the reasons underlying the face of the returns. If this were done, there would be less misrepresentaflon of fact by otherwise well-informed papers like The Boston Herald. We cite that paper as an example of the prevalent misunderstanding of this subject at the north.

It will go far to correct a world of misapprehension in certain quarters if the white voters of Georgia will make it their duty to turn out at the polls in the fall and swell the returns, in accordance with the present suggestion of Chairman Yeomans. A slim vote in the imminent October election in Georgia, not being understood in its relation to the previous primary election, will be set down by the political enemy as indicative of great democratic apathy and wholesale negro disfranchisement in this state. Nothing could be further from the truth, but in such instances our partisan detractors are exceedingly chary of the truth.

The Constitution would like to see a very heavy vote polled in Georgia next week. It is a healthy indication. For this reason, and for the moral effect on the presidential campaign, we earnestly urge all good democrats to make it a special point to register their will at the polls a week from Wednesday. Let the democratic majority in Georgia be a record-breaker.

"Pullman" Insurance.

Above all the horrifying details of the recent wreck on the Southern railway, the fact that not a single passenger riding in a Pullman car received the slightest injury stands out with clear-cut prominence. Under the fearful impact of the collision, not one of the Pullmans even left the rails.

This has come to be a familiar feature of the reports of large and small wrecks from all parts of the country. The heavy, well-balanced trucks and the car-bodies constructed of steel and heavy timber, enable the Pullmans to withstand a crushing force under which the ordinary day coaches crumble like an egg shell.

In view of these facts, it appears that the cheapest and most effective accident insurance for the regular or occasional traveller is what might be called "Pullman insurance," which can be purchased at a mere trifle, in comparison with the other costs of travel, in the shape of a Pullman ticket.

That the public appreciates the added safety of this form of travel, is shown by several incidents immediately following the local report of the recent wreck. People in Atlanta who had reason to believe their relatives had taken passage on the ill-fated train, had their sharp anxiety considerably appeased by the assurance that their loved ones had taken seats in a Pullman; hence they were confident that, even if in the wreck, they stood a hundred-fold better chance of escape than if they had been traveling in the day cars.

That their confidence was well-grounded, was proven by subsequent reports.

New Counties Needed.

At the general election on the 5th of October the people of Georgia will vote on two new county constitutional amendments, which are of considerable importance to various sections of the state.

The measures alluded to so amend the state constitution as to empower the legislature to form eight new counties out of the 137 now in existence. The simple passage of the amendments will not have the effect of creating the new counties, merely placing that power in the hands of the general assembly to be exercised at its discretion.

The status of counties and county seats has been practically unchanged since reconstruction days. In the interim, conditions have radically altered. The arrangement of counties and county seats, as laid out principally on the then existing railway systems and census returns, is now out of date. Some counties with few people twenty years ago have become thickly settled, railroad facilities have immeasureably increased, and occasionally towns of greater importance than the original county sites have come into existence. As a result, persons having legal or other business at the county seat are frequently forced to make roundabout journeys to reach their destination, consuming valuable time, to the detriment of their domestic interests.

When it is remembered that thousands of people, farmers, merchants, lawyers, laboring men and others are inconvenienced in this manner, the necessity for relief is apparent. This relief will be afforded by running new county lines in the congested sections, and designating new county seats, which will be of easy access to the inhabitants now put to serious inconvenience.

The formation of the new counties will involve no expense to the state.

The amendments are important ones, and every voter should give them his endorsement on the 5th of October.

Lhassa a Boomerang.

Many astute students of international politics express the opinion that the British invasion of Tibet will react more disastrously on King Edward's government than any of its aggressive policies of the last half-century.

Colonel Younghusband, under explicit orders from the home office, has captured Lhassa, the Buddhist strong hold of the world, and coerced the Dalai Lama, the titular head of the church, in such manner as will draw the resentment of the devotees of that religion among the teeming millions of the near and far Orient.

One of the chief sponsors for this grave prediction is A. G. Hales, correspondent of The London News, whose knowledge of Oriental matters is deep and far-reaching. It will thus be seen that this pessimistic view of England's course does not come from a non-sympathizing source.

Buddhism has upwards of 500,000,000 adherents, over one-third of the world's population. This intelligent and unintelligent horde, scattered among the nations of the Orient, regard Lhassa and the Dalla Lama with the same reverence which Roman Catholics accord Rome and the pope. The British desecration of the one and disrespect to the other, therefore, will naturally touch the most sensitive phase of the Oriental temperament—its religion. The average Oriental, too, takes his religion much more seriously than the occidental, and a blow aimed at its sanctity or that of is exponents comes home to him with the force of a personal affront.

From these somber premises, Mr. Hales and others proceed to argue that Great Britain will immediately feel the weight of its error, in an unorganized but effective trade boycott from these millions of outraged Buddhists. Additionally, whenever the long-feared international crisis appears in the east, the people of that faith, whether in British uniforms or living as protected British subjects, will seize the chance to throw all their armed influence against the aggressor's continuance in the Orient.

However strongly stolid western sentiment may discount this possibility, the historical fact remains that to meddle with the religion of subordinate subjects is to invite catastrophe—more especially where that religion is a strange compound of sublime ethics, fatalism and fanaticism.

Will Assist Prosecution.

Charlottesville, Va., September 26.—Captain Micajah Woods, commonwealth's attorney of Albemarle county, who has been requested to aid in the prosecution of Mayor J. Samuel McCue, charged with the murder of his wife, today announced that he will assist Mr. Gilmer and Mr. Kerr in the prosecution of the commonwealth's case. McCue will be arraigned tomorrow morning.

"JUST FROM GEORGIA."

A Song of Peace and Plenty.

I.

What care we for Winter, with its wreck and rain?—
Plenty on the hilltop and plenty on the plain—
Hives that hold the honey—all your lips can drain,
Joy and peace in Georgia in the mornin'!

II.

What care we for winter?—though the summer sweet
Passes with her violets from many a red retreat?
Fiddles making music for all the dancing feet—
Joy and peace in Georgia in the mornin'!

III.

The snow will hide the violets—the lilies fade from sight;
But think how once you knew them, in the gardens of delight!
But Joy will dance o'er meadows in their coverin' of white—
Joy and peace in Georgia in the mornin'!

IV.

Then ho! for life and laughter, for all the frozen rills;
And for the bright hereafter which the pleasing prospect fills;
A song supreme is ringin' from the halleluia hills;
"Joy and peace in Georgia in the mornin'!"

COTTON PICKED BY MOONLIGHT

Pickers Scarce and Homes Offered Those Who Work.

Augusta, Ga., September 26.—The cotton planters of this section are preparing to start tonight picking cotton by moonlight. Pickers are scarce and a bonus will be given those working from sundown to midnight.

EDITOR EDMONDS PRAISES CONSTITUTION'S STAND

Editor Constitution: Your splendid editorial in defense of law and order is deserving of the heartiest commendation and will meet the approval of every law-abiding citizen of the country.

Ringing resolutions on the line of your editorial declarations were passed at the recent annual convention of the Alabama Industrial Association, which met at Anniston, and received the heartiest applause. Also the talk of T. G. Bush, of Birmingham, on the same subject, was given enthusiastic commendation, showing that the good people everywhere are supporting you in your crusade for upholding the law.

Before leaving the city I wanted to extend my heartiest congratulations for your good work on this line.

TALKS ABOUT ATLANTA.

Macon News: In the Southern League New Orleans will fly the pennant and Atlanta chew the rag.

Cordele News: Atlanta is the only city that we know of that handles her gamblers with any degree of success.

Americus Times-Recorder: Atlanta is now recovering from the effects of the circus. A real good circus always enthuses the Atlantese.

Macon Telegraph: Atlanta footpads are real considerate. They take a man out close to the Home for the Friendless to waylay and rob him.

Augusta Herald: Atlanta is now trying to be the hub of the whole state of Georgia. The new freight rates will come mighty near making her so.

Augusta Herald: Atlanta papers are already referring to the inspiration of their new depot. Everything seems to be inspiring in Atlanta except freight rates.

Americus Times-Recorder: Atlanta is bringing every influence to bear, is fighting and struggling for a reduction of 1 per cent or less in freight rates, and will get it.

Memphis (Tenn.) Commercial-Appeal: Atlanta is the only team having the best of Memphis during the season and that advantage depended upon a forfeited game.

Augusta Chronicle: Atlanta's failure to have a Russian cruiser tied up there for repairs is probably due solely to the fact that the Chattahoochee river is not navigable above Columbus.

Birmingham (Ala.) News: Atlanta has not yet produced a near relative of General Kuropatkin. Therefore the readers of the Atlanta papers are without a "local end" to the eastern war.

Americus Times-Recorder: The fact that an Atlanta man claims to be the discoverer of the "cabbage snake" causes no surprise. He can take 1 quart of the "Atlanta spirit" and seen anacondas, easily.

Macon Telegraph: The Atlanta man has this puzzle to solve: "The mayoralty campaign will not be Long-i-no, and I can't take Stock-dell the Key of the situation is found and a Good-win appears to keep me from going Woodward!" Ain't that a dandy?

LIVELY WEEK AT CITY HALL

Finance Committee Meets Today To Consider October Apportionments.

While men who have never been in political trouble are looking for it, those who sought places and secured them during former years will be busy with the city's interests at city hall this week. It is committee week and every member of the general council will be forced to visit the hall several times in order to have a voice in the disposition of measures referred during the last session of council.

The first and probably the most important meeting of the week will be that of the finance committee this afternoon at 4 o'clock. This is Alderman Inman's committee. While it was called at the request of Secretary Dimmock, of the water board, who desires saying something about the proposed coagulating basin for the water works system, it is probable that the committee will also discuss its October apportionment sheet, which must be submitted to the general council during the first meeting of next Monday afternoon.

The October apportionment sheet is more of a reapportionment than anything else. It takes care of unexpended moneys and unanticipated expenditures.

The schedule for the other meetings of the week is as follows:

Wednesday, tax committee, Councilman Quillian, chairman, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon; Thursday, claims committee, Councilman Terrell, chairman, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon; Friday, committee on streets, Alderman Terry, chairman, and committee on bridges, Councilman Bruce, chairman, at 3 o'clock in the afternoon, and police committee, Councilman Hilburn, chairman, at 10 o'clock in the morning; Saturday, committee on sewers, Councilman Breitenbucher, chairman, at 10 o'clock in the morning.

Street Railway Pays Tax.

The Georgia Railway and Electric company yesterday afternoon sent a check for $11,874.49 to Tax Collector E. T. Payne. The collections for the day by Mr. Payne aggregated about $18,000.

Must Renew Liquor Licenses.

Under the ordinance recently adopted by the general council, October 1, is the last day for renewing licenses for both wholesale and retail liquors, beer and wines. October 5 is the last day for renewing all other kinds of business licenses. License Inspector Paul Hubbard and Deputy Clerk Charles Adams are kept busy by the merchants who are avoiding the rush of the last day.

Frank Pearson at City Hall.

The latest addition to the city hall circle is Frank Pearson, who is in the office of City Clerk Campbell as assistant until the rush days are over. Mr. Pearson has many friends in Atlanta who will learn with pleasure that he is to be associated with the city hall crowd.

Want to Close Street.

A petition was yesterday filed with the city clerk by the Fulton Bag and Cotton mills. This petition asks for permission to close Wyman street, an alley containing about 20 acres of ground, which runs directly through the property of the mills from the railroad right of way on the north to Tennille street on the south. The petitioner declares that the mills are on both sides of the street, and that it has never been the intention to make a public highway of it.

Mitchell's Case Continued.

Lexington, Ky., September 26.—Lewis Mitchell, the negro charged with attempting to poison the Mulligan family, refused to tell who concocted the plot today. His case was called and continued, pending further investigation. It is believed here that the negro is insane.

STATE PRESS HUMOR.

Bad Enough.

Stood by the Printer.

(From The Savannah Press.)

The editor of The Griffin News wrote it Manassas. The printer made it Manasses. Once an editor wrote it "the masses" and the printer got it "them asses." It was determined to stand pat on the printer.

Still Another Peachtree.

(From The Sandersville (Ga.) Herald.)

Sandersville's "Peachtree" is called "Silk Stocking" street by some of our citizens. The proper name is Harris street. This is the principal residence street of our town and the northern half of the street has some very attractive homes. The southern half of the street does not make as much pretention to outside looks, and is sometimes jocularly called the "darned end" of "Silk Stocking." This portion of the city is now beginning to assume more pretentious appearances, and the improvements now in contemplation will make it a beautiful section of Sandersville.

WRIGHT UPHELD BY JUDGE GRAY

Delaware Jurist Decides Case in Favor of the Miners.

Scranton, Pa., September 26.—Judge Gray, to whom was referred the controversy of the anthracite coal miners on the check weighman question and which had previously been adjudicated by Carroll D. Wright in favor of the miners, has also decided in the same way.

His decision was received by both W. L. Connell and T. D. Nichols, president and secretary respectively of the board of conciliation. The former represented the operators and the latter the miners. The opinion is a lengthy one, making a thorough review of all the issues presented by both sides and substantially as along the lines taken by Umpire Wright. In his conclusions Judge Gray says:

"I have examined the statutes to which reference has been made and do not think that the interpretation I have given to the fifth award at all conflicts with the requirements of the same. The courts of Pennsylvania, however, are the proper and only competent tribunals for the settlement of the question. My adjudication, therefore, in the premises is that the fifth award of the anthracite coal strike commission requires:

"First, that check weighmen and check docking bosses shall be employed at any of the collieries wherever required by a majority of the contract miners of said colliery.

"Second, that the wages of said check weighmen and check docking bosses shall be fixed, collected and paid by the miners (meaning all the miners of said colliery), but in such a manner as said miners shall by a majority vote elect.

"Third, that when proper requests provided in said award have been made by a majority of the miners at any colliery it is the duty of the management of said colliery to cooperate with the miners in the establishment of check weighmen and check docking bsses and pay the wages of the same out of the proportionate reductions from the earnings of the contract miners of said colliery.

"Fourth, that no assignment of earnings for that purpose is necessary to the due performance of the requirements of the award."

Secretary Dempsey and the executive board of district No. 1 were in conference during the morning. They expressed themselves as pleased with the decision.

STRIKERS RENEW EFFORTS

Two Hundred More Collection for Fall River Operatives.

Fall River, Mass., September 26.—The tenth week of the strike of textile workers has opened with renewed activity on the part of the labor leaders. Preparations are being made to send out fifty more women and men in addition to the fifty that have been collecting funds through the New England and middle Atlantic states. The entire middle west and west is to be covered. Within a few weeks there will be 200 or more collectors on the road.

One hundred of these will be supplied with credentials of the American Federation of Labor and the balance will be at work nearer home. The present collectors have brought in nearly 10,000 within five weeks.

The manufacturers and labor leaders are willing to confer but neither side will take the initiative.

French Flagship at New York.

New York, September 26.—The French cruiser Dupleix, the flagship of Admiral Rivet, of the South Atlantic squadron, arrived here today from Sydney, Cape Breton. The Dupleix will join the French cruiser Troude, which has been awaiting her arrival, and after a short stay here will sail for the West Indies.

GEORGIA PARTY OFF TO ST. LOUIS

Firemen's Drum Corps Make Fine Impression at Departure.

Special Train Carrying Governor Terrell and the Georgia Party Left Yesterday Afternoon Shortly After the Regular Train Over W. and A.

Gay with the blue and gold uniforms of the governor's staff and the crimson jackets of the firemen's drum corps, the Georgia day special puffed out of the union depot about 4:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon.

The trip is to be made over the Western and Atlantic, the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis, and the Louisville and Nashville railroads, and the special is due in the exposition city about noon today. The people of St. Louis are eagerly awaiting the Georgians and there will be a cheering throng, composed of many thousands, to greet the visitors at the fair grounds tomorrow.

Just before the train started on its journey the Firemen's drum corps paraded through the business streets of the city, discoursing such music as only the firemen's drum corps can play. Wherever the fire laddies appeared they were cheered to the echo and they carried with them the confidence of the people of Atlanta that this city would be splendidly represented on the big fair grounds. On the way to the train the drum corps stopped in front of The Constitution building and gave a farewell serenade.

The scene at the depot just before the train pulled out was one of animation and color. There were many ladies and gentlemen present as spectators, merely to speak a last goodbye to the travellers, and the uniformed men, red and blue, moving through this assemblage, made the sight a brilliant one.

The train carried Governor and Mrs. Terrell, the governor's staff and party of guests, Chief Joyner and the drum corps. The party of guests was made up of those whose names have already been announced, the only addition being Secretary of State Phil Cook, who decided yesterday morning that he could so arrange his business as to accept the governor's invitation to make the trip.

It is expected that Georgia day will be long remembered by those at the exposition and that it will be one of the most brilliant events of the kind during the entire exposition. The firemen's drum corps will, of course, arouse the usual enthusiasm and the governor's staff will add to the luster of the occasion.

Everyone on board the special train expects a most delightful visit to St. Louis and expects to do everything he or she can to make Georgia day a complete and perfect success.

The Membership of the Party.

The special train was made up of seven cars, three Pullmans for the governor and his staff and party, two for the firemen, a dining car and a baggage car. The visitors will return to Atlanta the latter part of the week. Those who left on the train are:

Governor and Mrs. Terrell, Colonel and Mrs. James W. English, Jr., Mrs. Fannie Lowry Porter, Miss Kate Robinson, Miss English, Mrs. T. R. R. Cobb, Miss Ethel Kelly, Mrs. Kelly, Mrs. E. W. McVarren, Mr. and Mrs. Dunbar and Miss Dunbar, of Augusta; Captain and Mrs H. H. Tift, Colonel and Mrs. James D. Robinson, Secretary of State Phil Cook, Colonel W. M. Toomer, Waycross, Ga.; Colonel and Mrs. R. Thomas, Adairsville; Colonel T. C. Erwin, Atlanta; Colonel Samuel Tate, Tate, Ga., Colonel W. E. Chapin, Atlanta; Colonel Z. H. Clark, Moultrie, Ga.; Colonel Joe Brown Connally, Atlanta; Colonel W. C. Lawrence, Atlanta; Colonel Byron Bower, Bainbridge, Ga.; Colonel D. L. Wooten, Albany, Ga.; Colonel H. P. Barum, Augusta, Georgia; Major L. C. King, Atlanta; Colonel M. Joseph, Athens; Colonel Frank Lipscomb, Athens; Colonel F. J. Paxon, Atlanta; Colonel R. E. Evans, Thomson; Colonel Shelby Myrick, Savannah; Colonel Joseph S. Raines, Atlanta; Colonel W. L. Peel, Atlanta; Colonel W. R. Power, Marietta; Colonel Gordon P. Kiser, Atlanta; Colonel Charles W. Crankshaw, Atlanta; Major W. E. Irvin, Atlanta; Colonel T. J. McRae, McRae, Ga.; Colonel Samuel Wilkes, Atlanta; Colonel J. Van Holt Nash, Atlanta; Joseph Billups, J. G. Hollenbeck, W. G. Humphries, Arthur Keely, Hugh Robinson, Dr. Wright, Dr. A. Ward Cobb, Ernest E. Dallis, John Paschall and J. T. Lively.

The governor's private car will be occupied by Governor and Mrs. Joseph M. Terrell, Colonel and Mrs. James W. English, Jr., Mrs. Fannie L. Porter, Dr. J. E. White, Hon. C. E. Dunbar, orator of the day, and Miss English.

JUDGE DENIES INJUNCTION

Two Hundred More Collections for Fall River Operatives.

New York, September 26.—Supreme Court Justice MacLean has refused an application for an injunction to restrain the Brooklyn Jockey Club from running races at the Gravesend track on the ground that there was nothing in the papers to show that a crime was about to be committed, and on the statement that in his opinion the court had no power to grant such an injunction.

This ruling was made after the court had examined affidavits and other papers in an application made to it by two lawyers who alleged that gambling and pool selling was permitted by the jockey club at the Gravesend track and that as such gambling would be permitted until the close of the meeting, October 3, they believed the court could issue an injunction against the jockey club.

Justice Grogan said:

"Your papers do not satisfy me that you have made out a case for an injunction."

"But," said counsel, "we show that a man lost $1,000 gambling at the race track."

"That happened the other day," said the justice. "There is no proof before me that anything of the kind will occur tomorrow. At any rate the constitutional convention authorized the legislature to pass an act permitting one thing in racing inclosures and making that same thing in any other part of the state illegal and I am not going to grant you an injunction."

SHIPPERS OF ATLANTA JOIN IN STATE'S FIGHT

Commission Is Satisfied with Its Contention as to Rates.

CONFERENCES ARE HELD; OUTLOOK IS PROMISING

The Attorney General Assisted by W. A. Wimbish, Counsel for Local Freight Bureau, to Appear Before Judge Newman October 8.

Firm in the faith that they will triumph in the end, the railroad commissioners yesterday rested their cause in the hands of Attorney General John C. Hart.

The attorney general, assisted by W. A. Wimbish, counsel for the Atlanta freight bureau, will appear before Judge Newman in the United States circuit court on October 8, when the freight rate case will come up for a preliminary hearing and will fight the battle to the end, if necessary through the United States supreme court.

All three railroad commissioners were at their offices at the capitol yesterday in pursuance to a summons from Chairman J. Pope Brown. The entire day was spent in conference with Governor Terrell and Attorney General Hart. During the day a committee from the interests which inaugurated the fair rate crusade called at the commission's office and stated that every one of those interested would uphold the commission in its legal fight. The members of the committee were:

President Newell, of the Atlanta freight bureau; Secretary H. T. Moore, of the same institution; R. F. Maddox, president of the Atlanta chamber of commerce, and Sam D. Jones, the well-known manufacturer.

The representatives of the freight bureau stated that their attorney, Mr. Wimbish, would be glad to give his services to the attorney general in the big case, and Attorney General Hart said he would be pleased to have Mr. Wimbish associated with him.

Chairman Brown Talks.

In speaking of the situation, Chairman Brown, of the railroad commission, said yesterday:

"What we have done was the result of long reflection and careful consideration. We made sure that the ground upon which we were to walk was firm enough to bear us. Then we went ahead and promulgated our decision with regard to a part of the questions before us. We believe that our position is legally sound, and that we will ultimately triumph before the courts. The commission is a unit in this belief, and we will fight to the end."

It is probable that Commissioner H. Warner Hill, who is one of the ablest lawyers in his section of the state, will aid the attorney general and the counsel for the freight bureau in the preparation of the case.

The commission has not yet discussed the question of whether it will at once resume a consideration of further reductions, but it is generally believed that the commission will, in the very near future, go on with its work.

State Board Commission.

The state text-book commission was yesterday called upon to consider an important question under the uniform school book contract. The question originated in Savannah, and is regarded by the members of the commission as rather a knotty proposition.

It is alleged that in Savannah several dealers, who are not authorized agents of the contracting publishers are selling books used under the uniform system. The authorized agents, who are bonded and otherwise restricted, complained of this and the matter was brought to the attention of the text-book commission.

The text-book commission is composed of the governor, the state school commissioner, the attorney general, the secretary of state and the comptroller general. All these officials met yesterday morning in the governor's private office and considered the question.

It was decided to call upon the publishers to ascertain which of their authorized agents was jobbing books to unauthorized people, and then to have the publishers revoke their contracts with the agent or agents at fault.

Need for a Bureau.

An interesting letter, showing the need of a state bureau of immigration, was yesterday received by Secretary of State Phil Cook. Colonel Cook says that hardly a week goes by in which he does not receive at least one letter of a similar nature. The letter itself read as follows:

"LaPorte, Ind., September 24, 1904.—Hon. Secretary of State, Georgia.—Dear Sir: "I have about 50,000 correspondents and over 1,000,000 followers. Among the many letters I receive a great many ask for information regarding the climate of various states and the advantages to be secured to their health by change of climate. I am now considering the advantage of various locations for establishing a southern colony of my people. The majority of them are well-to-do farmers and merchants and will make desirable citizens in any community.

"I have been informed that there are large tracts of good land in your state that can be secured at low prices. If you can give me any information as to this matter, also statistics regarding soil, crops and climate or refer me to parties who can give me the desired information I will appreciate the favor greatly. Cordially yours,

"DAVID H. REEDER, M. D.,
"President of the Home Health Club."

Following close on the heels of his action with regard to the Franklin county lynching, Governor Terrell took yesterday a similar firm stand on the Talbot county attack on two innocent negroes. Before his departure for St. Louis yesterday the governor offered a reward of $100 each for the arrest, with evidence sufficient to convict, of any of the unknown persons who took part in the attack on the two negroes. The negroes, Jack Price and Ed Martin, it will be remembered, were shot and badly wounded by a number of unknown white men. Later this action was denounced by a mass meeting of the county's best citizens as told in The Constitution. The governor's offer of rewards in this case was the subject of much favorable comment at the capitol yesterday.

Three applications for charters were yesterday filed in the office of Secretary of State Phil Cook, two being for banks and one for a steamboat company. The first petition was signed by A. E. Doster, J. H. Hill, A. J. Lee, F. S. Lee, C. I. Holland and James A. Smith, who desire to form the Bank of Lyerly with a capital stock of $25,000. The other petition for a bank charter was signed by H. F. Daniel, F. W. Hudson, W. G. Zellers and F. H. Steed, who desire to form the Bank of Palmetto, with a capital stock of $25,000.

The name of the proposed steamboat company, for which application was made for a charter, is the Oostanaula and Coosa Rivers Steamboat Company. It will have a capital stock of not less than $3,100 nor more than $25,000, and will do a general river transportation business. The principal office of the company will be at Rome. The petition was filed by Paul H. Doyal, attorney, and the petitioners are J. T. Warlick, L. C. Mitchell, C. A. Todd, H. A. Gould, Dennis Trammell et al

Among the visitors at the capitol yesterday were several dozen young ladies, students at the Southern Female college, at College Park. They were chaperoned by members of the faculty and visited every part of the state house from the basement to dome during the afternoon.

ENGINEERS PLAN A REUNION.

Third U. S Volunteers Will Meet at St. Louis in Week Beginning October 3.

The members of the Third United States Volunteer Engineers are planning to hold a reunion in St. Louis during the week of October 3d to 8th, 1904. The regiment was one of the volunteer engineer regiments authorized by special act of congress for service in the Spanish-American war.

The Third U. S. Volunteer Engineers were recruited from the south, and were mustered into service at Jefferson Barracks, Missouri, in July, 1898. The field officers were from the regular army and were West Point graduates, and the staff officers had served long terms of enlistment with the best regiments of the regular army.

The men were enlisted from various southern states. A large number came from Washington, D. C., and from the vicinity of Piedmont and Clarksville, West Virginia, St. Louis and other Missouri points contributed large quotas to the regiments, as did also Little Rock, Dallas, Galveston, New Orleans, Charleston, Knoxville, Atlanta, Rome, Richmond, Jacksonville, Louisville, Savannah, Memphis, Vicksburg and Birmingham.

THE W. J. WOOD STOVE COMPANY.

Will Occupy the Brotherton Store on Whitehall Street.

It was announced in yesterday's Constitution that the store occupied by W. H. Brotherton, corner Whitehall and Mitchell streets, had been leased for a term of years to the Rhodes-Haverty Furniture Company. The Rhodes-Haverty Furniture Company has a store corner Peachtree and Auburn avenue. The store now occupied by W. H. Brotherton will in the future be occupied by the W. J. Wood Stove Company. The officers of the W. J. Wood Stove Company are A. G. Rhodes, president; J. J. Haverty, treasurer, and W. J. Wood, manager. This company has been in business about a year at No. 4 Mitchell street, and so successfully has its affairs been conducted that it had to seek for new quarters and the result was the leasing of the Brotherton store.

The W. J. Wood Stove Company will not give up its present quarters, but will cut an entrance through into the Brotherton store and thus perfect a salesroom that for convenience and capacity will scarcely be equalled in Atlanta. The store will have two hundred feet frontage on Whitehall and Mitchell streets with over one hundred and fifty feet in show window space.

The W. J. Wood Stove Company will handle not only stoves, but house furnishing goods of every character. The Brotherton store will be refitted and put into a condition best adapted for the handling of the large stock of goods to be carried by the Wood company.

Mr. W. J. Wood is one of the most successful stove and furniture men in Atlanta. He knows the business through and through and knows the people as well, having been in business in Atlanta ever since he was large enough to sell a chair. It is predicted that the W. J. Wood Stove Company, backed by Atlanta capital and directed by able financiers and salesmen, will achieve a distinction in business that will place it in the front ranks of institutions of its character in the south.

POLLING PLACES HAVE BEEN CHOSEN

Secretary W. J. Campbell Announces Where Votes Will Be Cast.

Plans for the Municipal Primary on October 5 Are Gradually Being Completed and the Campaign is Growing in Interest Every Minute.

Polling places for the municipal primary on October 5 have been selected by City Clerk W. J. Campbell, who is the secretary of the city executive committee.

The selection of the polling places was left to the judgment of Mr. Campbell by the subcommittee, of which M. M. Welch is chairman, Mr. Campbell has done the work for years, and it was believed that he would have a better idea than others of the locations that should be chosen.

Yesterday afternoon Mr. Campbell announced that he had just completed the work of renting stores in which votes will be received on October 5. The polling places will be as follows:

First Ward—No. 25 West Mitchell street.

Second Ward—Basement of the county court house.

Third Ward—Fraser street, near Hunter street; rear of Thompson & Ivy's store.

Fourth Ward—Store near the corner of Auburn avenue and Jackson street.

Fifth Ward—No. 309 Marietta street.

Sixth Ward—No. 6 Peachtree street.

Seventh Ward—No. 206 Lee street.

Eighth Ward—Corner of North avenue and Peachtree street.

It will be noticed that the general location of the polls is the same as during former elections, with the exception of the new polling place, in the eighth ward, which was necessitated by the creation of that ward. Mr. Campbell has endeavored every year to have the polls in the same general location in each ward, in order that the voters might become accustomed to going to certain localities to vote.

Booths Have Been Built.

The voting booths in the second, fifth and sixth wards have been built and installed. The general plan of these booths is the same as in former years under the modified Australian ballot system in vogue here.

The booths are small stalls with curtains in front, and each is supplied with a light. As it is the intention of the subcommittee to give the voters absolute privacy in scratching their tickets, the booths are made sufficiently small to hold only one man.

Goodwin Arrives Today.

Colonel John B. Goodwin, one of the five candidates for the mayoralty, will reach Atlanta today after an absence of sevedal weeks. He has been in San Francisco, where he has been attending the annual meeting of the sovereign grand lodge of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows, of which he was grand sire until the recent meeting.

It is improbable that Colonel Goodwin will hold a public meeting tonight, although he will have conferences with his friends and will discuss plans for the active campaign which he intends waging until the day for the primary.

Meeting Not Yet Called.

The expected meeting of the city executive committee has not yet been called. It has been expected that John S. Holliday would secure the consent of eight members of the committee and request Chairman Dorsey to assemble the members in order to decide whether the subcommittee had done right in upholding the action of Secretary Campbell in declining to accept the assessment of Mr. Holliday seven minutes after the expiration of the time set by the subcommittee.

"If eight members of the city executive committee request me to have a meeting," said Chairman Dorsey, yesterday, "I will call a meeting for tomorrow night. After Tuesday night I will not call the meeting unless a majority of the members of the committee make the request."

The reason for this is that Wednesday morning the copy for the tickets is to be given the printer, and Chairman Dorsey believes plans for the primary will then have gone too far to disrupt them except at the request of a majority of the committee.

Woodward Spaks Tonight.

Alderman James G. Woodward will make the opening spech of his mayoralty campaign tonight. He will address the voters in the hall of the confederate veterans, Emery-Steiner building.

Alderman Woodward has in the past contented himself with making a canvass among the voters, and it will be of interest to many to know that he will tonight deliver a public address. The meeting begins at 8 o'clock.

Key Will Speak Tonight.

James L. Key will speak tonight in the council chamber at city hall. He will address the voters of the second ward, and announces that he will have something interesting to say to the voters.

Fifth's Registration Complete.

The counting of names on the registration list of the fifth ward has been completed. The count was finished yesterday morning. It shows that for the municipal primary on October 5 the fifth ward will be entitled to cast 1,385 votes, which is an increase of eighty-three votes over the registration for the county primary last spring.

Gomez to Represent Nicaragua.

Managua, Nicaragua, September 26.—President Zelaya has appointed Dr. Jose Dolores Gomez to be arbitrator for Nicaragua in the settlement of the boundary question with Honduras.

ATLANTANS AID ROMANCE THAT ENDS IN LOS ANGELES

R. O. BEAN, traveling passenger agent of the Southern and Union Pacific railroads, with headquarters in Atlanta, yesterday received a long letter from John Pettigrew, of Los Angeles, giving an account of the safe arrival of Mrs. Pettigrew, his mother, on the Pacific coast. Mrs. Pettigrew, it will be remembered, was the elderly lady, 72 years old, who arrived in Atlanta about six weeks ago and was taken care of so tenderly by Mr. Bean and Colonel "Jim" Heyward, of the West Point route. Mrs. Pettigrew lived in a little home in the mountains of North Carolina, and had never seen a railroad nor a train. Some forty years ago she was deserted by her husband, who left for the west, carrying with him their three children, a girl and two boys, the eldest of whom was only 11 years.

Until a few months ago Mrs. Pettigrew never heard a word from her children and living alone in her little mountain home, she gave them up for dead. But finally there came a letter asking if she was still living and signed by one who said that she was her daughter and had married and wanted to find her mother if such a thing was possible. She told how she had been carried to the western country by her father and two brothers, one of whom was dead. The other was still living and they had just learned the address of their mother, or rather the old address, which was given them by their father on his death bed. If their mother was living they wanted her to immediately come west, where they would gladly take care of her, as they were in the most comfortable circumstances.

It all sounded very much like a fairy story, but it happened to be one of those really truly fairy stories that do happen sometimes. So it was that a letter went back by the next mail, saying that the mother was alive and the happiest woman in the world, although she was forced to admit that she had not the money to make the long trip and did not know how, as she had never seen a railroad train. This letter was written by a neighbor, who incidentally remarked that the brave woman had made a hard struggle in her fight against the world and that no one would be more happy to hear of her fortune if it was really true than were her neighbors, who had learned to admire and love her for her courage in meeting single-handed the battle of life with an almost broken heart in the bargain.

The next thing that happened was a letter addressed to Atlanta for the Southern Pacific, this being the nearest point to Mrs. Pettigrew's home. This letter, which was written by her son, was turned over to Mr. Bean and asked for information as to the best way of getting the mother to the Pacific coast. Mr. Bean immediately sent an answer and the end of it all was that Mr. Pettigrew, of Los Angeles, sent an order for a ticket to Mr. Bean and asked him if he would kindly help his mother and see that she made the transfer in Atlanta all right and protect her from being imposed on. Money was also sent to defray Pullman and all other expenses.

Some time later an elderly lady was taken to the offices of the Southern Pacific by a kindly officer from whom she had asked the way. She was a very lovely old lady who didn't in the least mind saying that she had never been in a city before and that her first experience in a railroad train was rather more exciting than pleasant. She didn't think they were safe and she wouldn't get on one again for anything in this world except to get to her children for whom she had been praying and believing dead this long time. She wanted to know if there was a ticket waiting for her to go to Los Angeles and there was no doubting the fact but that she was very nervous for fear something had happened and that she could not continue her journey.

But the ticket was there all right and Mr. Bean was expecting her, and he immediately called up District Passenger Agent Heyward, of the West Point, and told him to come over as he had a passenger to New Orleans. Then it was that Mrs. Pettigrew told the two railroad men the whole story that sounded so very much like a fairy tale and especially about her grandchildren, for other letters had followed the first. The outcome of it all was that she was placed on a sleeper to New Orleans, and both Mr. Bean and Mr. Heyward telegraphed the representatives of the two roads to meet Mrs. Pettigrew on her arrival and see that she was safely and comfortably fixed on her right train. To prevent all possible mistake they told the Pullman conductor her story and he promised to attend to the transfer if the other officials failed to meet her. Altogether Mrs. Pettigrew, the lady who had never seen a railroad train before, was given the attention of a great magnate on a tour of inspection, and the porter was told that if he did not take care of her every want he had better never come through Atlanta again.

Yesterday Mr. Bean received a long letter from Mr. Pettigrew announcing the safe arrival of his mother. Both he and his sister were at the train to meet her and the dear old lady was carrying the letters he and his sister had sent to her and that it was in this way that she was identified. He told of their meeting, which was a most happy one, and as for his mother, she was growing younger every day after the way of a grandmother who is loving away the years in the midst of happy grandchildren. And Mr. Pettigrew also had some things to say in the way of thanks to Mr. Bean and Mr. Heyward, which both of those gentlemen passed over hurriedly yesterday. But according to Mr. Pettigrew, everything on the journey had passed off most successfully and comfortably. She had been met at New Orleans by both representatives, who escorted her to the right train and placed her in the care of the train conductor. But best of all, according to the letter written by her son, was the dinner which his mother had enjoyed so much as the guests of the two Atlanta railroad men and their every attention and kindness which had been so greatly appreciated by an elderly lady with but one adventure in her shut-in life—the adventure that came with her first trip on a railroad train after seventy-two years, half of which had been spent in an almost endless waiting to hear from her lost children.

RAILWAY NOTES.

The following order referring to changes in the Seaboard Air Line is certain to be of great interest to all Atlantans:

Effective October 1, R. M. Coffey has been promoted to traveling passenger agent of the Seaboard Air Line, vice W. B. Clements resigned. Fred Geissler is appointed and promoted traveling passenger agent, vice J. A. VonDohlen, who has been transferred to the Washington office. W. V. Lifsey, chief clerk to Assistant General Passenger Agent Christian, has been promoted to the position of city passenger and ticket agent, vice R. M. Coffey at present holding that position.

All of these men are well known in the Atlanta railroad world and the promotions are all on account of faithful and capable work for the Seaboard. Mr. Clements' resignation will be learned with general regret, as he has been in the service of the Seaboard for a long time and has made many friends.

Mr. Coffey has been associated with Mr. Christian for some time in the Atlanta office and has a wide knowledge of railroad affairs and a large acquaintance.

Mr. Geissler is also one of the younger railroad men who perhaps enjoys one of the largest circles of acquaintances both in the city and the state that will be of great benefit to him in his new position.

Mr. Lifsey also enjoys the reputation of being an all-round railroad man with a knowledge gained in the various departments that guarantees his success in the new position to which he has been promoted.

George E. Herring, passenger agent of the Louisville and Nashville in the office of J. G. Hollenbeck, district passenger agent of the same road with headquarters at Atlanta, has been appointed Florida passenger agent of the Louisville and Nashville with headquarters at Jacksonville. D. L. Griffin, assistant ticket agent of the Nashville, Chattanooga and St. Louis in Atlanta, has been appointed to succeed Mr. Herring as passenger agent.

Mr. Herring is another of the young railroad men of Atlanta who has succeeded in rapidly advancing himself to his present position. He began his railroad career a few years ago in the office of W. H. Tayloe, at that time assistant general passenger agent of the Southern in Atlanta. Later he entered the office of General Agent J. P. Billups, of the West Point route, and from here he started working for the Louisville and Nashville in the office of Mr. Hollenbeck.

Mr. Herring goes to Jacksonville to succeed John M. Fleming, whose death occurred a few days ago. Perhaps there was no man who ever came to the Atlanta railroad world who was more loved and respected both for his merits as a railroad man and his personality as a gentleman than was Mr. Fleming. Certain it is that the Atlanta railroad world has never been more concerned over the death of any outside man and with the news of his death there was only words of love and sincere admiration for this young man who had begun on such a promising career. A warm personal friend of Mr. Hollenbeck, it was through his recommendation that he was first given a chance with the Louisville and Nashville. As a token of the esteem in which he was held by the road a special circular announcing his death, his efficiency and his brilliant service in the interests of the road was sent out with a deep border of mourning and signed by his superior officer, General Passenger Agent Stone.

Mr. Fleming was in Atlanta only a short time ago and appeared in the very best of spirits. His death, which came suddenly, was due to an attack of appendecitis. It was just at a time when it was believed that he was rallying from this attack that a relapse followed and he never recovered. Mr. Hollenbeck hurried to his bedside, but did not arrive until after Mr. Fleming's death.

W. E. Christian, assistant general passenger agent of the Seaboard Air Line, returned yesterday from a week's trip in Virginia, including Portsmouth and Richmond.

The Natural Bridge Railway Company announce the appointment of C. W. Pidcock as general manager of that company with headquarters at Moultrie, Ga. Mr. Pidcock has appointed John S. Davison general superintendent of the road with headquarters at Tallahassee. This road is almost completed and is certain to prove one of the important short lines in Florida. Mr. Pidcock was until recently president of the Georgia Northern Railway Company, which position he resigned on account of ill health.

BOYS RUN AWAY BUT ARE CAUGHT

Four Valdosta Youths Decide To Make Texas Their Home.

Valdosta, Ga., September 26.—(Special.)—Four Valdosta boys, from 15 to 17 years old, members of of prominent families, ran away from home and started to Texas, unknown to their parents. The boys walked to Mineola, on the Georgia Southern road, expecting to board a train there, but telephone messages to the towns up the road intercepted them and they were detained until they could be sent for from this city.

The boys had been told that farm laborers were paid $18 per month and board in Texas, and the comforts of home having become stale, they decided to make for the Lone Star state and go to work on some big ranch. Incidentally, they might kill a few Indians and grizzly bears and see something of the world.

Mexican Company in Court.

New York, September 26.—N. B. GLASSWARE. DORFLINGER ESTABLISHED 1852 TRADE MARK

The Gentle Art

of pleasing guests finds fit expression in a table dressed with glassware made by Dorflinger. Of purest crystal, cut in artistic patterns, this glassware always does full justice to the taste of a discriminating host. Dealers are glad to prove the genuineness of their stock by showing the trade-mark label on each piece.

DORFLINGER

The Art of Correct Dress

Is manifestly a question of attention to the separate details which produce the smart effect.

Every fastidious man has experienced the poise which comes with the consciousness of being well groomed. In fact, America's greatest philosopher said there were times when good dress would impart to the man a composure which even religion could not.

We represent in wide variety Watches, Fobs, Cuff Buttons, Scarf Pins, Signet Rings and other accessories of dress.

Taylor-Forshaw.

THE marriage of Miss Ella Taylor and Mr. Walter H. Forshaw was solemnized Sunday evening at 6:30 o'clock at the home of the bride's parents in Lithonia. The bride is a pretty and attractive young woman, and is quite popular in both Lithonia and Atlanta. Mr. Forshaw is an employee of the Georgia Railway and Electric Company.

After the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. I. Y. Walker, of the First Baptist church, the young couple left for Atlanta, where they were entertained at a reception at the home of the groom, 15 Ashland avenue.

PLAIN TALK

Food for Thought There, Too.

"Having found out for myself the food that enables me to get the most pleasure out of life I consider it a duty to tell someone else my experience," says a Massachusetts woman.

"Born with a weak and sensitive stomach I suffered long with indigestion and the many ills arising from it, general constipation, weakness of the bowels together with catarrhal inflammation and rheumatism of every form and fashion with a tremendous amount of suffering. I had what is known as deposits of brick dust and uric acid, with almost every other impurity of the blood which such a condition can produce.

"Coming to the conclusion that I must eat to live and not live to eat I began looking about to find the best way and among the many foods tested was Grape Nuts. I did not use it as a general food or exclusively, but simply ate it once a day either at morning or night on an empty stomach and softened in warm cream or milk with a little sugar, bread or butter or cooked or raw fruit. Up to this time I had tried every known remedy for constipation and had to rely on the medicines, although I continually got worse instead of better; within a short time the Grape Nuts food (which always digested) had toned up my whole system and digestive organs in particular until every bit of constipation and bowel trouble disappeared and I bade good bye to all the cathartics.

"Now, after using Grape Nuts two years I still think it delicious. My rheumatism is all gone, also the constipation, something I had never even hoped for, never have a headache nowadays, my eye sight and hearing are excellent for one of my age, but had given me much trouble while I suffered from constipation. I am now past 80 years of age, but walk out and enjoy it. Feel strong and well and I know the Grape Nuts has given added vigor to my brain, too. It would be very gratifying to me to know that my letter had helped show others the way to a proper diet that has cured my stomach and bowel trouble." Name given by Postum Co., Battle Creek, Mich.

THE PASSING THRONG.

"Notwithstanding that destructive storm we had last week," said Captain W. D. Sloan at the Kimball yesterday, "Macon is sure to have one of the biggest and most successful fairs this fall the Central City has ever known. In fact, I am inclined to think it will be one of the most gigantic expositions the south has ever known, barring one or two. Really it is the Cleveland exposition only which can surpass what the Central City will present this fall. Storms and cyclones are rare in Macon, and when that hurricane came along last week and swept away the new buildings which were going up for the coming fair the people down there simply laughed.

"Within a few hours the destruction of the building and its consequences began to dawn upon the people who are anxious for a big state fair this fall. Then it was that the loyalty of the people began manifesting itself. On all hands it was conceded that the buildings would have to be there in time if Macon wanted a fair. The buildings used last year—I should have said the main building used last year and for years past—was burned away last spring. Before the ashes were cold, contracts for the new main building were let. That building was almost complete—at least it had begun to assume its finishing proportions—when the cyclone of last week came along and destroyed it again.

"It seemed to some that the fates were against us. But no town in the south has better grit within its confines than has Macon. Realizing that the buildings were essential to the fair, a few leading spirits went to work immediately. The city council get together, and by a vote of unanimity appropriated as much money to the work of reclamation as the business men were willing to give. Macon's business men are ever ready to help along, and within a few hours the amount of money necessary to replace the buildings had been subscribed. That's the way we do it in Macon. If you don't believe it, just come down this fall and see the fair we are going to give the state. Yes, it will be a fair of which the state will be proud."

"If you have the slightest idea that Georgia is not attracting attention at St. Louis, you can have that idea exploded by passing a day on the grounds in the Mound City. I am just back after a three weeks' stay there, and it mattered not where I was in those grounds I heard some one asking about Georgia—asking where the building was or how to get to it. And, I tell you, before I realized the fact I found myself a guide post for those hunting the Georgia building."

It was T. C. Clements, of Chattooga county, who was talking. He was standing in front of the Kimball register, and around him were gathered a half dozen or more friends with whom he was well acquainted.

"It's just like I tell you," he went on. "I was inclined to think when I went to St. Louis that I would not be very proud of the Georgia building and of the Georgia exhibit. I knew before I bought my ticket that the exhibit was scattered, and naturally I was of the opinion that little attention was being paid to it. Knowing the varied amounts of money the states had given for buildings, I was not impressed by anticipation. But, now that I have seen it, now that I have made what might be called a careful inspection not only of the building, its contents and its general appearance, but of the displays outside of the building, I have no hesitancy in asserting that there are few states on exhibition at the world's fair which attract more attention than does Georgia. Another feature which struck me is the ease with which Georgians find one another within the grounds. Up town it's a hunt for a Georgian wherever you may go; but once inside the grounds it's an easy thing for one Georgian to find another resident of that state.

Hon. Lon. Livingston, member of congress from this, the Atlanta district, was in the city yesterday and was mingling with his friends at the Kimball.

"I've seen a number of wrecks in my time" remarked T. H. Lampkin, of Raleigh, N. C., at the Piedmont yesterday afternoon. "But I have never seen one equalling in destruction that near Knoxville Saturday afternoon. No, I was not in it—thank the Lord. But I was on a train moving south which followed the one which bumped into the opposing train. My train was about an hour behind the train which was in the collision. I came out of Cincinnati with a ticket to Newmarket. I could have ridden on the train in front of me, and why I did not do so I haven't the slightest idea. The collision occurred before we reached Newmarket, and every one there knew of it before our train came to a halt. Impelled by curiosity, I guess, I can charge it up to that feeling, I, with half dozen others, after we had heard of the collision, walked down the track to the cut where the trains came together. Had one selected a spot for a collision in which great loss of life and heavy destruction of property was desirable, there could have been no more satisfactory selection; no better selection. On a curve, both sides of which were guarded by high banks, there was no chance on earth for the engineers to see 50 yards ahead. Of course I know nothing of the orders which had been issued. But by observation I do know that the best railroad engineer could not have found a place more suitable for a collision of that kind than right there. How did it look? The most realistic writer in the country, the best artist known could not tell you. The camera even was inadequate to the story. The passenger coaches might have been an old fence—they might have been anything. Rescuers were then hard at work. Lifeless forms were being drawn from the great heap of ruins. Some were brought out cold and limp in death. Others gave a groan as their forms were laid alongside the dead on the bank for the rescuers knew not when they were handling the dead or the living. Not only were the parts of the train torn to atoms, but here and there could be seen fragments of the human form as it was lifted gently and kindly by some one of the workers from the place in which it was found.

"No, it wasn't the first wreck I have seen. But I sincerely trust it will be the last one."

Children Leave in Tears.

New York, September 26.—Amid scenes of weeping, seventy-five children have taken their departure from the New York Foundling asylum for new homes in the west, secured by agents of the charity. The children were taken from the home by Fifth avenue, stages and placed aboard a passenger car, on which they are now speeding westward, bound for Nebraska and Arizona. All are from three to five years of age. A large crowd gathered to see them start, while wealthy patronesses of the institution looked on with moist eyes and the nurses who had reared the little ones were deeply affected.

Exeter Mills Again Running.

Exeter, N. H., September 26.—The cotton mills of the Exeter Manufacturing Company, which have been shut down since July 25, principally on account of the depression in the trade, resumed operations in all departments today. The company employs about six hundred operatives. The Exeter company owns mills employing 200 in Pittsfield, which also have been closed for some time. It is announced that the Pittsfield plant will be started October 10.

BEN HILL PLACED ON TRIAL

Third Defendant in Maples Case Now Before Court.

Huntsville, Ala., September 26.—Ben Hill, the third defendant accused of complicity in the Horace Maples lynching, was put on trial this morning. The lynching occurred September 7. The military guard has been withdrawn from around the Madison county jail on the recommendation of Judge Speake, and militiamen returned to Birmingham this morning. The squad of additional men who left Birmingham yesterday for this place were stopped at Decatur and sent back. They were on their way to relieve an equal number already on duty at the jail.

Judge Speake has decided that there is no probability of further trouble during the trials that are to follow.

ROME, GA.

C. B. GOETCHIUS,

Rome's Leading Real Estate Dealer.

And the Only One Making a Specialty of Farm, Truck and Mineral Properties.

Among the advantages of the late civil war which the south will reap in all the coming years and which will eventually compensate for the enormous financial losses sustained by the conflict is the development of her great natural resources—her minerals and fertile lands, by thousands who would never have known of their value but for the enforced explorations made necessary in the trying days of the sixties. The south is already a paradise for homes and it is being developed. Life here has none of the perplexities and annoyances incident to purely manufacturing centers, like New England. Fruit grows in luxuriant abundance and of the finest quality, the soil and climate being particularly adapted to peaches and grapes, of which car loads are being shipped annually to the northern markets from Georgia alone. The tide of emigration that for years had been steadily flowing into the western states has unquestionably been turned southward, and the homeseeker, as well as the investor, has come to realize that this wonderful land, so vast in resources and riches, offers the greatest and surest field for profitable investment in the United States today.

I called at the office of Mr. C. B. Goetchius, here in Rome, one day of the present week, and would say to those interested that his is the one agency that makes a specialty of such properties, and also that he always has a large list from which to select both farm, fruit and mineral lands, and no man in north Georgia is better authority upon values than he. He is an energetic and broad gauge business man of comprehensive ideas and thoroughly imbued with the bright future of Georgia real estate. He is secretary of the Rome board of trade and the Commercial League. His offices are centrally located, on Broad street, and are headquarters in the city for real estate investors.

TECH FOOTBALL READY TO START

Two Games Are Scheduled for This Week at Tech.

The Tech football team is ready for the season's work. Two games are scheduled for this week, one with the Georgia Military academy, played Wednesday, and the other with the soldiers, to be played Saturday.

Every day finds fresh candidates on the field contesting for the honor of representing Tech this season. The fact that Heisman is coach of the team has brought about this result.

By the end of this week it is believed that Coach Heisman will have a squad of some 90 men from whom he must pick the team which will play the other colleges of the south.

The material is promising, though the strength of the team must come from the coaching of Heisman rather than from the worth of the material. A number of old 'varsity men are back, and so are a number of scrubs. Hughs, Strong, Moore, Wood, Gregg, and a number of others will form the nucleus of the 'varsity, though some of these men may be supplanted by new players.

Hamilton, Clarke and Sims are three more men who have been doing good work. Wilson has been showing up well, and there are others who are depended on to add strength to the team.

Work of the Prep Teams.

At Georgia and at Tech among those depended on this season are a number of prep. stars of last season, men from Georgia Military school, Stone Mountain and other college preparatory schools.

The limited schedule of last season brought about the development of these boys into football material acceptable for college teams. The prospect for this season among the prep. schools is far better than that of last year.

In the first place every school entered in the race will receive the benefits of coaching from old college stars, men who have played the game in the leading colleges of the south for years past.

The following is the list of schools and coaches:

Donald Fraser—Sandy Beaver, Georgia.
Marist school—Joseph Bean.
Boys' High school—Professor Park, Auburn.
Georgia Military academy—Jack Bower, Georgia.
Stone Mountain—Sadler, Clemson.
Barnesville—Worsham, Georgia.

This is the corps of teachers in football science who will coach the prep. teams this season.

Every man is well known in the world of sport.

Sandy Beaver, of Donald Fraser, is an old Georgia man of the year 1903. He played guard, and was one of the old reliables of the team. His great strength and stick-to-it-qualities made him a valuable line man. He was also valuable to a team on account of the life that he always managed to put into the game.

Joseph Bean, who will coach the Marist college, in baseball for another year, and who will probably get out a football team this season, is one of the best minor league players in the country. He was captain of the Jersey City team for several years, and was playing good ball this season until an accident put him out of the game. He is an expert in gymnasium work.

Jack Bower, of the Georgia Military academy, comes from Georgia, playing there on the same team with Sandy Beaver. Bower played end with Sandy halfback, and did well in both places.

Sadler, of Stone Mountain, last year a member of the Clemson team and captain of that team, was the star of the south last season, and was selected by Heisman to lead the all-southern team. He was supposed to play end by the majority of teams that faced the Tigers and by the football fans of the country. As a matter of fact, however, his position was a combination of end and quarter back, with a mingling of the duties of the two.

Worsham, of Barnesville, was another player on the Georgia team at the same time that Bower and Beaver were playing there. He played in the line.

With six teams in the race for the fight for the prep. championship should be a bitter one. The success of the baseball league of prep. teams last year, would it seems have suggested to those in charge the formation of a football league, but up to date each team is making a schedule of its own, thus in all probability renlering impossible a prep. championship.

STILL KEEPING UP FIGHT.

Merchants and City Council of Savannah and Rate Circular.

Savannah, Ga., September 26.—(Special.)—The temporary injuction secured by the Central Trust Company before Judge Newman against the Central railway and the Georgia railway commission, restraining them from putting in effect rate circulars Nos. 301 and 302, recently promulgated by the commission, will not operate to put a stop to the fight instituted by the city council and merchants of Savannah to prevent the rates from becoming effective.

A meeting of the special committee was held this afternoon and Captain D. G. Purse was elected secretary and empowered to gather all the necessary data to make a showing before the commission and induce it to rescind the circulars.

Jasper Superior Court.

Monticello, Ga., September 26.—(Special.)—Jasper superior court is in session here this week with Judge Gray Lewis, of Greensboro, presiding and Hon. Joseph E. Pottle, of Milledgeville, looking after the interests of the state. There are eight murder cases, all among the colored population. Visiting attorneys are Colonels N. E. Harris, of Macon; Cooper, of Macon; W. B. Wingfield, of Eatonton; Dessau, of Macon; Dodson, of Americus; Foster, of Madison, and Walter Harris, of Macon.

HELD PISTOL AT MRS. EADY'S HEAD

Bold Negro Burglar Threatened To Commit Murder.

The Pistol He Had Was Stolen—Affair Occurred at 2 O'Clock in Afternoon in Heart of City—Other Burglaries Reported.

As a climax to the recently bold burglaries which have been committed in the city, a negro walked into the residence of Thomas J. Eady, 43 West Harris street, at 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon and, after helping himself to what he wanted and could carry away, pointed a pistol in the face of Mrs. Eady and told her if she called out again he would kill her.

That a negro burglar would enter a residence in the very heart of the city and at such an hour as 2 o'clock in the afternoon was something that has caused considerable surprise to the police, although there have been several bold burglaries reported in the city recently.

Mrs. Eady hard the negro in a room, and, never dreaming it was a burglar, she called out to her cook to know if it was she. She called out two or three times, saying:

"Laura, why don't you answer me?"

Suddenly the negro stepped into the room where Mrs. Eady was, and pointing a pistol at her head he said:

"You call Laura or ahybody else again and I'll blow out your brains."

Thoroughly frightened, Mrs. Eady kept quiet and did not raise the alarm until the negro burglar was out of the house and where he could not carry out his murderous threat.

The pistol which the negro had was one of the articles he had stolen from Mr. Eady's residence.

Call Officer Abbott investigated the affair, but was on the scene too late to get on the track of the burglar.

Other Burglaries Reported.

Bicycle Officer Starnes caught two negro burglars in the store of R. A Broples, corner of Whitehall and Forsyth streets, Monday morning about 3 o'clock. The two negroes, Frank Payne and John Webb, were held by the recorder yesterday in bonds of $500.

A negro burglar was captured Saturday night under a bed in the Marion hotel. He gave his name as Garfield Jefferson, and was held in a $500 bond by the recorder yesterday morning.

Burglars entered the Boys' High school Sunday night and attempted to break open the iron safe in the superintendent's office, but failed.

The Empire saloon, on the first floor of the Empire building, Walton street, was entered by burglars Sunday night and about $35 in cash stolen.

Officer Starnes reported yesterday that the two negroes he captured in Broyles' store were caught by two negroes and held until he arrived on his bicycle.

TORMENTING RHEUMATISM

Columbus, Ohio, May 20, 1903.

Six years ago I had a severe attack of Inflammatory Rheumatism. I was laid up in bed for six months, and the doctors I had did me no good. They changed medicines every week and nothing they prescribed seemed to help me. Finally I began the use of S. S. S. My knee and elbow joints were swollen terribly, and at one time my joints were so swollen and painful that I could not close them when opened. I was so bad that I could not move knee or foot. I was getting discouraged, you may be sure, when I began S. S. S., but as I saw it was helping me I continued it, and to-day I am a sound well man and have never had a return of the disease. S. S. S. purified my blood and cured me of this severe case of Rheumatism after everything else had failed. I have recommended it to others with good results.

R. H. CHAPMAN.
1355 Mt. Vernon Ave.

The poisonous acids that produce the inflammation and pain are absorbed into the blood and Rheumatism can never be conquered till these are neutralized and filtered out of the blood and system. S. S. S. goes directly into the circulation and attacks the disease itself. It purifies and restores the blood to a healthy, vigorous condition. It contains no potash, alkali or other strong minerals, but is guaranteed entirely vegetable. Write us and our physicians will advise without any charge whatever. Our book on Rheumatism sent free.

WALL STREET BEARS WERE AGGRESSIVE

Forced Prices To Net Loss of About 17 to 20 Points.

PART WAS LATER RECOVERED.

On Heavy Exports and Covering by Early Sellers and Professional Shorts, the Close Being Steady 6 to 13 Points Lower.

New York, September 26.—It was only a moderately active day in the cotton market. The opening was weak at a decline of 6@11 points, which was barely a response to lower English cables, good weather over the week end and reports of an easier spot situation. Wall street exerted considerable pressure against the market and shortly after midday prices showed a net loss of about 17 to 20 points. In the afternoon the appearance of very large exports helped the market somewhat, and with covering by early sellers and professional shorts the market recovered a considerable part of the loss, being at one time well above the opening figures. The close was steady at a net decline of 6@13 points. Sales were estimated at only 250,000 bales. The big estimates for tomorrow's receipts at leading points led to predictions that tomorrow's ports would reach at least 85,000 bales and that the into sight for the week would amount to about 470,000 bales. It was believed, however, that the big receipts reflected approaching clearances so that they were considered worthy of but little attention as an immediate market factor.

New Orleans Cotton Market.

New Orleans, September 26.—Spot cotton quiet and weak; sales 2,650 bales, including 1,600 to arrive. Quotations 3-16c lower.

Futures opened easy at a decline of 5 to 15 points, influenced by Liverpool, New York, heavy port receipts and quiet and lower spot markets. Some unloading by uneasy longs was seen around the openings and bears were inclined to do some hammerying. The support from the country, however, lifted prices after each decline. At the highest prices of the session futures were 5 to 10 points lower, and at the lowest levels they were 16 to 19 points lower than the close of Saturday. The market closed weak, showing net losses of 7 to 18 points.

The Dry Goods Market.

New York, September 26.—The new week has started without any noticeable change in the attitude of buyers of dry good, a strict adherence to their conservative policy regarding cottons continues, while agents are apparently determined to maintain the advances, made last week. The jobbing trade has been fairly active and a busy week is anticipated.

Hubbard Bros. & Co.

COTTON—On the decline in Liverpool and heavy port receipts, with a slackening of bull attempts to advance prices, the market showed a tendency to ease during the forenoon, irrespective of the gradually waning desires to buy on the part of outside speculators. This continued with a considerable decline till, locally, there was some wish to cover the interest which had been created and a rally followed, however of no more than local significance. While there is a tendency to await the government report of deterioration, the energetic efforts of interested speculators to affect opinion and so the market, pass with only casual notice. The spot market was quiet at 20 points decline.

Southern Exchange.

COTTON—The cotton market opened quiet and lower, responding to the lower advices from Liverpool. There was considerable long stuff dumped for profit and this, coupled with some short selling by a leading Wall street bear, helped the decline. The market, however, received good support around the low levels and the bears were indisposed to push the reaction too far in view of this feature. The south bought moderately of December and January and spinners were good buyers of the spot article. A Philadelphia spot cotton house was also a buyer. The weather was generally favorable over Sunday and the expectation that the weekly report tomorrow would not be unfavorable had a tendency to depress sentiment. The short interest has increased considerably during the past week and looks to us as if it was becoming top heavy and would not be surprised to see a bear panic of no mean proportions in the near future. The size of this interest is large enough to put cotton up 100 points at the minimum and think cotton will sell at 12½c before October 1. No mistake can be made by taking a free position on the long side of the market at current quotations and all slight recessions.

WHEAT—After opening from ⅛ to ¼c higher in response to higher cables from Liverpool, wheat broke sharply on heavy profit taking sales and active bear operations. The more favorable weather in the wheat belt and large receipts at northwestern points, depressed sentiment as did the selling of December wheat by a prominent bull who bought last week. The claim that the Dakotas and Minnesota will produce 152,000,000 bushels of wheat, and that the movement is only limited by the inability to get cars, commanded considerable attention. Receipts of wheat today, estimated 68, actual 75, contract none.

CORN was weak with wheat and on the warm weather in the corn belt, the estimate of a prominent Chicago authority that the crop will exceed 2,500,000,000 bushels affected sentiment. Cash interests and the trade sold, with local shorts the takers.

OATS were weak on the weakness in the surrounding pits. The afternoon markets were all unsettled and sentiment mixed.

L. J. Anderson & Co.

COTTON—Wall street was an aggressive seller of cotton today, and there was a decline, but prices yielded reluctantly. Liverpool cables this morning were very disappointing, the opening being sharply below expectations, while the close was 8 to 10 points down for futures and 16 points off for spot, with the demand limited; sales 4,000 bales. New York's opening was 6 to 11 points lower with sentiment among professionals bearish. At noon the decline had been increased to 17 to 20 points, part of which was later recovered on light covering. A disposition is shown to await the monthly government report which will be issued on Monday, October 3, and if considerable deterioration is not shown, and the movement continues on the present enormous scale, it will be reasonable to expect lower prices, provided there is no frost scare. Port receipts today 75,927 bales, against 52,595 last year. Exports today 43,347. The close was steady net 8 to 13 points lower.

WHEAT—On an intimation that some of the big operators were disposing of their lines, together with an increase of 1,173,000 bushels in the visible supply and decidedly heavy primary receipts, the wheat market was weak and sensationally lower today. Realizing sales were heavy, increasing stop loss orders on the way down. The market was firm at the start, December being up 1-8 to 1-4c, at $1.14 1-4 to $1.14 1-2, while May was a shade lower to a shade higher at $1.15 1-4 to $1.15 1-2, due to the strength of foreign cables. Liverpool showing a sharp advance. Shortly after the opening prominent longs began selling, and from that time to the close prices worked steadily downward, at the lowest showing a decline of 4c, at $1.10 1-2 for December and $1.11 1-2 for May, and closing practically at the low point. Primary receipts 1,890,700 bushels, against 437,500 last year. Shipments 491,000 bushels, against 437,500 last year. Clearances 36,800 bushels wheat and flour. The amount on passage decreased 720,000 bushels.

CORN—The market was weak at the start on favorable weather and liberal receipts. In the later trading the break in wheat was the main influence. December closed 7-8 to 1c lower at 50 1-4. Primary receipts 559,500 bushels, against 636,700 last year; shipments 840,600 bushels against 703,100 last year. The visible supply increased 819,000 bushels.

OATS—Trading was light in oats, the weakness of wheat and corn being the main influence. December closed 3-8c. lowe at 30 3-4c.

PROVISIONS—Receipts of hogs were small and prices were higher, resulting in a firm market. January product closed 2 1-2 to 10c. higher.

Cothran & Co.

COTTON—The decline that took place today was generally expected last week. The market had advanced nearly a cent a pound, trading in the future market was along narrow lines, weather in the south was favorable for picking, receipts were large, trade conditions in this country rather unfavorable, and altogether factors seemed again a further advance for the time being. A great deal of cotton was sold on the rise, and after an advance of nearly a cent bear factors that have no influence on a decline came into play. Some of the best traders on the floor not only sold out long cotton last week, but went short for a scalp. When Houston's estimate came in this morning, and Galveston, it was no wonder that the market slipped off to 10.55 for December. It was rather surprising that prices held so well during the afternoon. One cause for the steadiness was to be found in the short covering by those who were satisfied with 30 or 35 points, and this held the market in the face of the adverse conditions. Trading was not particularly active, though commission houses began to buy moderately and the price worked toward 10½c. There is a general feeling that for a time, at least, and until the frost question is settled, cotton can be bought on a break of 30, 40 or 50 points without running very much risk. Even the short sellers of last week still regard the market as sound as the level gets nearer 10½c. In the event of a further decline from this level, we believe there is money to be made in conservative buying. The question of frost is too important to permit a running break, notwithstanding the large receipts.

WHEAT—Although the foreign news was rather bullish and the cash situation regarded as strong, there was selling from the start that increased in force, the short interest having been largely reduced and the weakness was intensified by selling on St. Louis and northwest account. The large primary receipts and the big increase in the visible weakened the bull position, and while there was influential buying at times, offerings for local and outside account were more than the market could take, and the impression prevailed that stocks were very large in private elevators, and the big receipts in the southwest came as a surprise. Millers and the demand was tame. The close was heavy, and while it looks as if lower prices would materialize, it will probably be worth while to cover shorts on further breaks while taking on some long wheat for fair-sized rally.

CORN—There was excellent cash demand, Armour paying 45 for No. 3 yellow, and it was estimated that receipts up to date for the last half of November amount to 1,000,000 bushels. Country acceptances were large, and there was country selling of the futures. A crop expert's estimate of $1,875,000,000 being disregarded. The weakness in wheat encouraged short sales with some of the larger commission houses covering shorts. There was a good class of buying, but the close was easy and sentiment intensely bearish, although on further breaks we would favor purchase.

OATS—Car lots here over the estimates, with 282 in Minneapolis, and this with the large increase in the visible and only a fair cash demand, induced liquidation that was helped along by hedging sales. Some of the cash houses bought May and the pit crowd were inclined to be a little bullish at the close.

PROVISIONS—Product developed considerable strength, the hog run being light and prices higher, but packers sold January ribs and lard on the advance. There was a good cash demand, and had it not been for the weakness in corn, no doubt, prices would have worked higher.

Visible Supply of Grain.

New York, September 26.—The visible supply of grain Saturday, September 24, as compiled by the New York produce exchange, is as follows:

Wheat 15,203,200 bushels, increase 1,173,000.

Corn 6,471,000 bushels, increase 819,000.

Oats 18,156,000 bushels, increase 2,975,000.

Rye 1,404,000 bushels, increase 116,000.

WHEAT DECLINE AN EVEN FOUR CENTS

Liquidation and Execution of Stop Loss Orders Influences.

CLOSED NEAR THE LOWEST.

December Left Off 3 3-8c to 3 1-2c, Corn Closed 7-8c Lower and Oats 3-8c Lower—Provisions Closed 2 1-2c to 10c Higher.

Chicago, September 26.—A break of 4 cents a bushel in the price of wheat occurred today. The decline was due to general liquidation and to the execution of numerous stop loss orders. Surprisingly heavy primary receipts contributed to the weakness. The market closed at almost the lowest point of the day, December being 3 3-8@3 1-2c. down. Corn is off 7-8@1c.; oats down 3-8c. and provisions 2 1-2c. to 10c. higher.

At the start wheat was tolerably firm. December opened 1-8@1-4c. higher, at $1.14 1-4@$1.14 1-2 and May a shade lower to a shade higher, at $1.15 1-4@$1.15 1-2. To a large extent this was due to the strength of foreign markets, Liverpool being up nearly a penny. Immediately after the opening two or three big operators began to sell out lines of long wheat and prices started down, the decline continuing the entire session. Weakening influences early were liberal northwester receipts and prospects of continued large receipts. As prices declined many stop loss orders were reached and the execution of these orders added to the weakness. Unexpectedly heavy arrivals in the southwest and an increase of nearly 2,000,000 bushels in the visible supply were late bear factors. December sold at $1.10 1-2 just before the close and closed quiet at $1.05 5-8. May touched $1.11 1-2 and closed at $1.11 3-4. Clearances equalled 36,800 bushels. The amount on passage decreased 720,000 bushels and the cisible supply increased 1,193,000 bushels. Primary receipts were 1,890,700, against 1,167,200 a year ago. Minneapolis, Duluth and Chicago reported 1,158 cars, against 1,047 last week and 964 a year ago.

Continued warm weather had a weakening effect on corn early, and later the break in wheat added to the depression. Country acceptances of Saturday were liberal, and sales made today against these were a feature of the early trade. The market closed almost at the lowest. December opened a shade to 5-8c. lower at 50 5-8@51 1-8, sold off to 50 1-8@50 1-4 and closed at 50 1-4. Receipts 470 cars, 40 contract.

Oats were weak in sympathy with grains. Bearish sentiment was augmented by an increase for the week of 50,000 bushels in local stocks, carried in local warehouses. December opened 1-8 to 1-4 higher at 31 1-4@31 3-8, sold down to 30 5-8 and closed at 30 3-4. Receipts 236 cars.

In spite of weakness in corn provisions were firm. Small hog receipts and higher prices were the bull factors. Selling was mainly in the way of profit taking. January pork closed 10c. higher at $13.35; lard 7 1-2c. higher at $7.45, and ribs 2 1-2@5c. higher at $6.90@$6.92 1-2.

Estimated tomorrow: Wheat 162 cars; corn 325 cars; oats 217 cars; hogs 15,000 head.

MARKET BROADER; PRICES STRONGER

Represented Revival of Drooping Tendency of Last Week.

STEEL PREFERRED LEADER.

Its Strength Was of Sympathetic Advantage to General List—Profit Taking Made Some Impression on Prices in Last Hour.

New York, September 26—Both strength and breadth were manifest in the dealings in stocks today and the market as a whole represented clearly a revival from the drooping tendency of the latter part of last week. The strength and activity were not so much congested in special stocks as recently, and the market had a certain appearance of quiet for the greater part of the day. The leader of the market in point of activity was United States Steel preferred, and its strength was of sympathetic advantage to the general list. The professed motive for the buying was a conviction that the full dividend on the preferred stock for the current quarter is sure to be disbursed. No authority could be cited for this assumption. Western railroad officials expressed disagreement with the lowest estimates of the corn crop current in Wall street last week, but they also admitted the retarding effect on business until the crop outlook is more definitely assured. There was still an important influence on sentiment by the assertions of a large accumulation of Atchison in the interest of Union Pacific, but more was heard of questioning of the scope of the plan of accumulation. The indications of progress making in the working out of the problem of ultimate control and harmonization of the trans-continental railroad situation was accepted as important and made that whole group conspicuous in the market. The profit taking made some impression on prices in the last hour.

Bonds were firm. Total sales, par value, $4,025,000.

United States 2s, the 3s and the old 4s advanced 1-8 per cent. on call.

Money on call firm at 2 per cent. Time loans steady; 60 days 3; 90 days 3 1-2; 6 months 4 per cent.

Prime mercantile paper 4 1-2@5 per cent.

Sterling exchange firmer with actual business in bankers' bills at $4.85.75@$4.85.70 for demand and at $4.83.45@$4.83.55 for 60 days; posted rates $4.84@$4.84 1-2 and $4.86 1-2@$4.84; commercial bills $4.84.

Bar silver 57 7-8.

Mexican dollars 4.85 3-4.

Government bonds strong.

Railroad bonds firm.

The Treasury Statement.

Washington, September 26.—Today's treasury balances, exclusive of the gold reserve, show available cash balances $151,105,524; gold, $65,083,605.

The Howell Jones Co.

COTTON—Liverpool cables were disappointing today, being 5 to 7 off for futures and 16 lower for spots. The world's cotton market opening 6 to 8 lower, sold 10 to 12 lower, subsequently advanced 12 points on buying orders just before the close. The close was steady, with an unward tendency. The outlook is for a higher market during the week. Port receipts were estimated at 68,000 bales, which indicates that cotton is being rapidly marketed.

WHEAT—The wheat market opened steady and unchanged to 1-2c lower, and on liquidation prices declined 4c per bushel. All news from the wheat belt was bullish, but nervous longs dumped an avalanche of selling orders on the market and forced prices down. The close was weak, with final values near the lowest for the day.

CORN—The corn market was nervous, and sympathized with wheat, but prices were only forced about 1c lower. Corn seems to be about the top for the present, and lower prices seem probable.

OATS—The oats market was dull, with prices practically unchanged to 1-2c lower.

PROVISIONS—The provision market was steady, with prices up 10 to 15c. Provisions look cheap at present prices and the long side looks good.

STOCKS—The stock market was dull but very strong. Sugar advanced 2 per cent, and several other stocks advanced from 1 to 1-2 per cent. The Pacifics, grangers and coalers look cheap and the long side is where the money will be found. Buy Colorado Fuel and Iron and a long hold and realize good profits.

Miller & Co.

COTTON—While Liverpool cabled that heavy offerings from the south were responsible for the weakness there and interior markets in the eastern half of the belt reported slackening demand and cotton cheaper to buy, the decline which started in futures and which at one time reached 20 points below Saturday's figures was more than half recovered on heavy buying, supposed to have been for the account of a local bear leader. There is no doubt that there was a great deal of scattered covering for outsiders during the morning. It was such a novelty to see a good sharp reaction that the few who sold short on Saturday were quick to seize profits, while the old shorts were only too glad to get out at 40 points better than would have been possible only a few days ago. The weekly weather report, due tomorrow, is variously regarded, some arguing, from the favorable conditions of the puast week that it will be bearish, while others claim that the damage done in previous weeks is only now becoming apparent and that the report will necessarily confirm the previous accounts recently received. Another influence just ahead of us, which is causing a good deal of solicitude, is the bureau report due October 3. Public opinion leans towards a very bullish figure of condition so far. The returns of The Journal of Commerce for the two Carolinas, Georgia and Alabama do not indicate any remarkable deterioration since last month, so that any great falling off must come from the states further west. To our minds the most potent influence at the moment is the spot situation. If demand is to continue lessening during the remaining days of this month it is hardly likely, even though supported by manipulation, that futures can be held up. Receipts when demand is active may be disregarded, but when spot buyers hold off the weight of the movement becomes a menace and will continue so until reviving spot demand absorbs all offerings. The closing shows a net loss on the day of about 10 points. Liverpool is expected to come 2 to 3 higher in the morning.

WHEAT—Big receipts everywhere, which in the aggregate exceed last year by three-quarters of a million and liquidation by Saturday's bulls made a very weird wheat market. Little was heard of the flour demand of last week and such bullish items as much smaller world's shipments and strength in early Liverpool cables which, however, was later lost, were not influential.

CORN yielded to pressure of sales by cash houses against heavy country accentances. The pessimistic crop reports made by wheat experts are more than discounted by the two and a half billion figures given out by half a dozen well-known and well-posted local houses. Weather conditions practically insure the marketing of a very small percentage still liable to damage by a hard freeze.

OATS declined with slump in wheat and corn and then held steady. Trade light and moderate by free of pressure. The visible showed another heavy increase of nearly 3,000,000 bushels, which brings total up to figures nearly triple those of a year ago. Conditions suggest improved demand because of the relative cheapness of this cereal.

PROVISIONS—Buying of October lard and ribs continues the feature of provision trade and gives tone to the whole market. Receipts of 17,000 hogs today were unexpectedly small and advanced prices at yards 10 to 15c. Estimated tomorrow 15,000.

WENT TO WHIP FATHER IN LAW

That is What E. B. Harman Wanted to Do—Was Arrested and Fined.

E. B. Harman, a soldier from Fort McPherson, was arraigned in the recorder's court yesterday afternoon on the charge of threatening to whip his father in law.

R. G. Walker, the proprietor of the Plant hotel, on Decatur street, stated that he was Harman's father in law, and the prosecutor in the case.

"Harman came to my room door," stated the father in law, "and remarked that he believed he would whip me. I knew he couldn't do it, but I did not want the trouble of fooling with him. So I called in the police."

Mrs. Harman stated that her father was prejudiced against her husband because he was a soldier.

Harman admitted everything said against him. The recorder entered a fine of $3.75, which Harman paid.
